Senator Mark E. Huizenga of the 30th District offered the following invocation:

Dear heavenly Father, thank You for this day; for the beautiful springtime weather that we're appreciating; for the leaves that are sprouting and for birds in their nests. Lord, be with us today in all that we do. Help us that we make decisions that are right and responsible, those that are for the good of the state and the good of our district. Lord, be with those who are less fortunate, for those who are working overseas, and for our armed forces and those in our public-safety departments. Be with us in all that we do.
In Your name we pray. Amen.

The President pro tempore, Senator Moss, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.
