

BOARD OF COUNTY AUDITORS
Act 275 of 1913

AN ACT to authorize the boards of supervisors of counties to create a board of county auditors, appoint such officers, and prescribe their powers, duties and compensation.

History: 1913, Act 275, Eff. Aug. 14, 1913.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

47.1 Board of county auditors; creation, referendum; form of resolution.

Sec. 1. The board of supervisors of any county in this state, except in such counties where provision has heretofore been made for the creation of the office of county auditor or board of county auditors, may, upon a majority vote of the members elect of said board, at any October session thereof, submit the question of creating and establishing a board of county auditors or county auditor in such county to a vote of the electors of said county. The board of supervisors may submit the question at a general election. The following form of resolution shall be sufficient for submitting the question: Resolved, That the question of creating and establishing a board of county auditors be submitted to a vote of the electors of the county of at the general election to be held on the day of nineteen hundred 47.4a Repealed. 2005, Act 246, Imd. Eff. Dec. 1, 2005.

Compiler's note: The repealed section pertained to operation of county auditors operating under special or local act.

47.5 Board of county auditors; election, terms, vacancies, eligibility.

Sec. 5. The board of supervisors of any county instead of electing all the members of the board of auditors may elect by ballot a board of county auditors of not to exceed 3 members, 1 of whom the board of supervisors shall designate as chairman of the board of county auditors. If the board of county auditors consists of 1 man, he shall be elected for a term of 1 year; if the board consists of 2 men, 1 shall be elected for a term of 1 year, and 1 for a term of 2 years; if the board consists of 3 men, 1 shall be elected for 1 year, 1 for 2 years and 1 for 3 years. The term of office of each of these members shall begin on the following January 1. At each October session of the board of supervisors preceding the expiration of the term of office of each of the individual members of the board, his successor shall be appointed by the board of supervisors for a term of 3 years from the following January 1. Every person so elected shall hold for the term of office indicated and until his successor is elected and qualified. No person shall be deemed elected as a member of the board of county auditors who shall not receive a majority vote of all the members of the board of supervisors. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the board of auditors, it shall be filled by the board of supervisors, except in counties now or hereafter having a population of 1,500,000 or more, vacancies shall be filled as provided in section 239 of Act No. 116 of the Public Acts of 1954, being section 168.239 of the Compiled Laws of 1948, and such appointment shall be for the unexpired term of the vacancy so filled. No person holding any office either elective or appointive under any county adopting this act, or any of the townships of the county, or of the state, and no person not an elector of the county shall be eligible to hold the office of county auditor. No more than 2 members of any board of auditors shall be affiliated with the same political party.

47.6 Board of county auditors; conducting business at public meeting; notice of meeting; chairperson to preside; duties of clerk; availability of certain writings to public; quorum; office; compensation and expenses.

Sec. 6. The business which the board of county auditors may perform shall be conducted at a public meeting of the board held in compliance with Act No. 267 of the Public Acts of 1976, being sections 15.261 to 15.275 of the Michigan Compiled Laws. Public notice of the time, date, and place of the meeting shall be given in the manner required by Act No. 267 of the Public Acts of 1976. The chairperson of the board shall preside over its meetings. The county clerk, or the clerk's deputy, shall be in attendance during the meetings, and serve as clerk of the board, without compensation other than his or her regular salary. The county board of commissioners may appoint and fix the compensation of a secretary who shall perform the function of clerk of the board of auditors. The clerk, in addition to all duties as may devolve to him or her, shall keep a record of the business transacted by the board, and the minutes of the proceedings of meetings held, and, under the direction of the board shall have charge of all letters, papers, documents, and records of the board. A writing prepared, owned, used, in the possession of, or retained by the board in the performance of an official function shall be made available to the public in compliance with Act No. 442 of the Public Acts of 1976, being sections 15.231 to 15.246 of the Michigan Compiled Laws. Two members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The county board of commissioners may provide the board of county auditors with an office at the courthouse, and the members of the board shall receive compensation and expenses as determined by the county board of commissioners. The compensation and expenses shall be payable monthly in place of all fees.

47.9 Board of county auditors; powers and duties.

Sec. 9. The said board shall have power, and it is hereby expressly authorized and directed:

First, To audit all claims which are chargeable against the said county, as in section 8 above provided, and to draw warrants therefor, duly signed by its chairman and countersigned by the clerk; but no warrant shall be drawn or issued by said board except for the amount of a just claim against said county, which has been duly allowed by said board;

Second, To purchase such books, stationery, blanks, printed matter, furniture and general supplies, as shall be necessary for the use of the county and its officers, and the circuit court;

Third, To examine the books and accounts of all county officers. The board, may as often as it deems necessary require the accounts and vouchers of any county officer to be presented, and after the same shall have been examined and audited by said board, it shall not be required that said account be again audited by the county board of supervisors. Whenever any moneys are paid to the county treasurer by an officer or agent of said county, such officer or agent shall take a duplicate receipt therefor, which shall be filed forthwith in the office of the said board, and said county treasurer shall at the end of each month, and at such other times as may be required by said board, report to said board all moneys received by him, from and after making his last report;

Fourth, To recommend to the board of supervisors the number of clerks, assistants and other help necessary in the several county offices, and also recommend compensation for such deputies, clerks and assistants employed therein, and in the circuit court when not otherwise provided by law;

Fifth, To designate and establish a system of records and accounts for the various county offices, and require any county officer to make report under oath of any subject or matter connected with the duties of his office. Any person violating the provision of the subdivision shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished as provided in section 8 hereof;

Sixth, To approve any and all official bonds in which the county may be interested, where the approval of such bonds is not otherwise provided by law. The board may require any officer, deputy or assistant or clerk to give bond to the people of the state of Michigan in such sum as it deems reasonable and necessary for the faithful performance of their respective duties;

Seventh, To summon witnesses, administer oaths and take testimony as to the legality of any bill or claim pending before said board;

Eighth, To prepare on or before the tenth day of each month, a statement signed by the clerk of said board of all claims passed upon by the board during the preceding month. Copies of the statement shall be on file and available for inspection only by the public at the clerk's office;

Ninth, To prepare annually before the first day of October of each year, a detailed estimate of the necessary expenses of said county for the ensuing calendar year, together with an estimate of the probable receipts of the county from all sources other than taxation. These estimates shall be presented to the board of supervisors at its annual October session, on the first day of such session, with recommendation of said board of auditors as to the amount of money necessary to be raised by taxation for the several purposes of the county expenditures;

Tenth, To have immediate charge and control of the court house and all other county buildings of said county and to provide for the maintenance of the same in an appropriate manner: Provided, That no more than $1,000.00 shall be expended in any 1 year for repairing or improving the county buildings;

Eleventh, To contract for the printing of all proceedings of the board of supervisors and for printing all official ballots as prepared by the board of county election commissioners, and such other printing as may be required in the various county offices, all of which shall be contracted for with the lowest responsible bidder;

Twelfth, To elect 1 of their members to act as chairman pro tempore in case of the illness or unavoidable absence of said chairman.
