LEASING OF PRIVATE RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY Act 226 of 1988

AN ACT to limit the powers of a local governmental unit regarding the leasing of private residential property.

History: 1988, Act 226, Imd. Eff. July 5, 1988.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

123.411 "Local governmental unit" defined; rent control prohibited; management and control of residential property; incentive to increase supply of certain residential property.

- Sec. 1. (1) As used in this section, "local governmental unit" means a political subdivision of this state including, but not limited to, a county, city, village, or township, if the political subdivision provides local government services for residents in a geographically limited area of this state as its primary purpose and has the power to act primarily on behalf of that area.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), a local governmental unit shall not enact, maintain, or enforce an ordinance or resolution that would have the effect of controlling the amount of rent charged for leasing private residential property.
- (3) This section does not impair the right of any local governmental unit to manage and control residential property in which the local governmental unit has a property interest.
- (4) This section does not limit the power of a local governmental unit to adopt an ordinance or resolution to implement a plan to use voluntary incentives and agreements to increase the supply of moderate- or w-cost private residential property available for lease.
