Reps. Birkholz, Bodem, Dalman, DeVuyst, Dobb, Galloway, Gilmer, Goschka, Horton, Johnson, Kukuk, Law, McBryde, Oxender, Schroer and Sikkema named co-sponsors

ENROLLED HOUSE BILL No. 5212

AN ACT to amend 1933 PA 167, entitled "An act to provide for the raising of additional public revenue by prescribing certain specific taxes, fees, and charges to be paid to the state for the privilege of engaging in certain business activities; to provide, incident to the enforcement thereof, for the issuance of licenses to engage in such occupations; to provide for the ascertainment, assessment and collection thereof; to appropriate the proceeds thereof; and to prescribe penalties for violations of the provisions of this act," by amending sections 1, 4a, and 9 (MCL 205.51, 205.54a, and 205.59), section 1 as amended by 1997 PA 193, section 4a as amended by 1996 PA 435, and section 9 as amended by 1991 PA 87.

The People of the State of Michigan enact:

Sec. 1. (1) As used in this act:

(a) "Person" means an individual, firm, partnership, joint venture, association, social club, fraternal organization, municipal or private corporation whether organized for profit or not, company, estate, trust, receiver, trustee, syndicate, the United States, this state, county, or any other group or combination acting as a unit, and includes the plural as well as the singular number, unless the intention to give a more limited meaning is disclosed by the context.

(b) "Sale at retail" means a transaction by which the ownership of tangible personal property is transferred for consideration, if the transfer is made in the ordinary course of the transferor's business and is made to the transferee for consumption or use, or for any purpose other than for resale, or for lease, if the rental receipts are taxable under the use tax act, 1937 PA 94, MCL 205.91 to 205.111, in the form of tangible personal property to a person licensed under this act, or for demonstration purposes or lending or leasing to a public or parochial school offering a course in automobile driving. However, a vehicle purchased by the school shall be certified for driver education and shall not be reassigned for personal use of the school's administrative personnel. For a dealer selling a new car or truck, the exemption for demonstration purposes shall be determined by the number of new cars and trucks sold during the current calendar year or the immediately preceding year without regard to specific make or style in accordance with the following schedule of 0 to 25, 2 units; 26 to 100, 7 units; 101 to 500, 20 units; 501 or more, 25 units; but not to exceed 25 cars and trucks in a calendar year for demonstration purposes.

(c) "Sale at retail" includes the sale of tangible personal property to persons directly engaged in the business of constructing, altering, repairing, or improving real estate for others except property affixed to and made a structural part of the real estate of a nonprofit hospital or nonprofit housing. A nonprofit hospital or nonprofit housing includes only the property of a nonprofit hospital or the homes or dwelling places constructed by a nonprofit housing entity qualified as exempt pursuant to section 15a of the state housing development authority act of 1966, 1966 PA 346, MCL

125.1415a, the income or property of which does not directly or indirectly inure to the benefit of an individual, private stockholder, or other private person.

(d) "Sale at retail" includes a conditional sale, installment lease sale, or other transfer of property if title is retained as security for the purchase price but is intended to be transferred later.

(e) "Sale at retail" includes the sale of electricity, natural or artificial gas, or steam if the sale is made to the consumer or user for consumption or use rather than for resale. Sale at retail also includes the sale of a prepaid telephone calling card or a prepaid authorization number for telephone use, rather than for resale. Sale at retail also includes the reauthorization of a prepaid telephone calling card or a prepaid authorization number. Sale at retail does not include the sale of water through water mains or the sale of water delivered in bulk tanks in quantities of not less than 500 gallons.

(f) "Sale at retail" includes computer software offered for general sale to the public or software modified or adapted to the user's needs or equipment by the seller, only if the software is available for sale from a seller of software on an as is basis or as an end product without modification or adaptation. Sale at retail does not include specific charges for technical support or for adapting or modifying prewritten, standard, or canned computer software programs to a purchaser's needs or equipment if those charges are separately stated and identified. Sale at retail does not include computer software originally designed for the exclusive use and special needs of the purchaser. As used in this subdivision, "computer software" means a set of statements or instructions that when incorporated in a machine usable medium is capable of causing a machine or device having information processing capabilities to indicate, perform, or achieve a particular function, task, or result.

(g) "Sale at retail" includes the sale of tangible personal property by an industrial laundry under a sale, rental, or service agreement with a term of at least 5 days.

(h) "Sale at retail" does not include an isolated transaction by a person not licensed or required to be licensed under this act, in which tangible personal property is offered for sale, sold, transferred, and delivered by the owner.

(i) "Sale at retail" does not include a commercial advertising element if the commercial advertising element is used to create or develop a print, radio, television, or other advertisement, the commercial advertising element is discarded or returned to the provider after the advertising message is completed, and the commercial advertising element is custom developed by the provider for the purchaser. As used in this subdivision, "commercial advertising element" means a negative or positive photographic image, an audiotape or videotape master, a layout, a manuscript, writing of copy, a design, artwork, an illustration, retouching, and mechanical or keyline instructions. Sale at retail includes black and white or full color process separation elements, an audiotape reproduction, or a videotape reproduction.

(j) "Gross proceeds" means the amount received in money, credits, subsidies, property, or other money's worth in consideration of a sale at retail within this state, without a deduction for the cost of the property sold, the cost of material used, the cost of labor or service purchased, an amount paid for interest or a discount, a tax paid on cigarettes or tobacco products at the time of purchase, a tax paid on beer or liquor at the time of purchase or other expenses. Also, a deduction is not allowed for losses. Gross proceeds do not include an amount received or billed by the taxpayer for remittance to the employee as a gratuity or tip, if the gratuity or tip is separately identified and itemized on the guest check or billed to the customer. In a taxable sale at retail of a motor vehicle, if another motor vehicle is used as part payment of the purchase price, the value of the motor vehicle used as part payment of the purchase price shall be that value agreed to by the parties to the sale as evidenced by the signed statement executed pursuant to section 251 of the Michigan vehicle code, 1949 PA 300, MCL 257.251. A credit or refund for returned goods or a refund less an allowance for use made for a motor vehicle returned under 1986 PA 87, MCL 257.1401 to 257.1410, as certified by the manufacturer on a form provided by the department of treasury, may be deducted.

(k) "Business" includes an activity engaged in by a person or caused to be engaged in by that person with the object of gain, benefit, or advantage, either direct or indirect.

(l) "Tax year" or "taxable year" means the fiscal year of the state or the taxpayer's fiscal year if permission is obtained by the taxpayer from the department to use the taxpayer's fiscal year as the tax period instead.

(m) "Department" means the revenue division of the department of treasury.

(n) "Taxpayer" means a person subject to a tax under this act.

(o) "Tax" includes a tax, interest, or penalty levied under this act.

(p) "Textiles" means goods that are made of or incorporate woven or nonwoven fabric, including, but not limited to, clothing, shoes, hats, gloves, handkerchiefs, curtains, towels, sheets, pillows, pillow cases, tablecloths, napkins, aprons, linens, floor mops, floor mats, and thread. Textiles also include materials used to repair or construct textiles, or other goods used in the rental, sale, or cleaning of textiles.

(2) If the department determines that it is necessary for the efficient administration of this act to regard an unlicensed person, including a salesperson, representative, peddler, or canvasser as the agent of the dealer, distributor, supervisor, or employer under whom the unlicensed person operates or from whom the unlicensed person obtains the tangible personal property sold by the unlicensed person, irrespective of whether the unlicensed person is making sales on the unlicensed person's own behalf or on behalf of the dealer, distributor, supervisor, or employer, the department may so regard the unlicensed person and may regard the dealer, distributor, supervisor, or employer as making sales at retail at the retail price for the purposes of this act.

Sec. 4a. A person subject to tax under this act may exclude from the amount of the gross proceeds used for the computation of the tax, a sale of tangible personal property:

(a) Not for resale to a nonprofit school, nonprofit hospital, or nonprofit home for the care and maintenance of children or aged persons operated by an entity of government, a regularly organized church, religious, or fraternal organization, a veterans' organization, or a corporation incorporated under the laws of the state, if the income or benefit from the operation does not inure, in whole or in part, to an individual or private shareholder, directly or indirectly, and if the activities of the entity or agency are carried on exclusively for the benefit of the public at large and are not limited to the advantage, interests, and benefits of its members or any restricted group. At the time of the transfer of this tangible personal property, the transferee shall sign a statement, in a form approved by the department, stating that the property is to be used or consumed in connection with the operation of the institution or agency and that the institution or agency qualifies as an exempt entity under this subdivision. The statement shall be accepted by all courts as prima facie evidence of the exemption and the statement shall provide that if the claim for tax exemption is disallowed the transferee will reimburse the transferor for the amount of tax involved. A sale of tangible personal property to a parent cooperative preschool is exempt from taxation under this act. As used in this subdivision, "parent cooperative preschool" means a nonprofit, nondiscriminatory educational institution, maintained as a community service and administered by parents of children currently enrolled in the preschool, that provides an educational and developmental program for children younger than compulsory school age, that provides an educational program for parents, including active participation with children in preschool activities, that is directed by qualified preschool personnel, and that is licensed by the department of consumer and industry services pursuant to 1973 PA 116, MCL 722.111 to 722.128.

(b) Not for resale to a regularly organized church or house of religious worship, except the following:

(i) Sales in activities that are mainly commercial enterprises.

(ii) Sales of vehicles licensed for use on public highways other than a passenger van or bus with a manufacturer's rated seating capacity of 10 or more that is used primarily for the transportation of persons for religious purposes.

(c) To bona fide enrolled students, of food by a school or other educational institution not operated for profit.

(d) Affixed to and made a structural part of real estate excepted from the definition of "sale at retail" under section 1(1)(c).

(e) That is a vessel designated for commercial use of registered tonnage of 500 tons or more, if produced upon special order of the purchaser, and bunker and galley fuel, provisions, supplies, maintenance, and repairs for the exclusive use of the vessel engaged in interstate commerce.

(f) To persons engaged in a business enterprise and using or consuming the tangible personal property in the tilling, planting, caring for, or harvesting of the things of the soil; in the breeding, raising, or caring for livestock, poultry, or horticultural products, including transfers of livestock, poultry, or horticultural products for further growth; or in the direct gathering of fish, by net, line, or otherwise only by an owner-operator of the business enterprise, not including a charter fishing business enterprise. This exemption includes agricultural land tile, which means fired clay or perforated plastic tubing used as part of a subsurface drainage system for land, and subsurface irrigation pipe, if the land tile or irrigation pipe is used in the production of agricultural products as a business enterprise. At the time of the transfer of this tangible personal property, the transferee shall sign a statement, in a form approved by the department, stating that the property is to be used or consumed in connection with the production of horticultural or agricultural products as a business enterprise, or in connection with fishing as an owner-operator business enterprise. The statement shall be accepted by all courts as prima facie evidence of the exemption. This exemption includes a portable grain bin, which means a structure that is used or is to be used to shelter grain and that is designed to be disassembled without significant damage to its component parts. This exemption does not include transfers of food, fuel, clothing, or any similar tangible personal property for personal living or human consumption. This exemption does not include tangible personal property permanently affixed and becoming a structural part of real estate.

(g) To the following:

(i) An industrial processor for use or consumption in industrial processing. Property used or consumed in industrial processing does not include tangible personal property permanently affixed and becoming a structural part of real estate; office furniture, office supplies, and administrative office equipment; or vehicles licensed and titled for use on public highways, other than a specially designed vehicle, together with parts, used to mix and agitate materials added at a plant or jobsite in the concrete manufacturing process. Industrial processing does not include receiving and storage of raw materials purchased or extracted by the user or consumer; or the preparation of food and beverages by a retailer for retail sale. As used in this subdivision, "industrial processor" means a person who transforms, alters, or modifies tangible personal property by changing the form, composition, or character of the property for ultimate sale at retail or sale to another industrial processor to be further processed for ultimate sale at retail. Sales to a person performing a service who does not act as an industrial processor while performing this service shall not be excluded under this subdivision except as provided in subparagraph (i).

(ii) A person, whether or not the person is an industrial processor, if the tangible personal property is a computer used in operating industrial processing equipment; equipment used in a computer assisted manufacturing system; equipment used in a computer assisted design or engineering system integral to an industrial process; or a subunit or electronic assembly comprising a component in a computer integrated industrial processing system.

(h) That is a copyrighted motion picture film or a newspaper or periodical admitted under federal postal laws and regulations effective September 1, 1985 as second-class mail matter or as a controlled circulation publication or qualified to accept legal notices for publication in this state, as defined by law, or any other newspaper or periodical of general circulation, established not less than 2 years, and published not less than once a week. Tangible personal property used or consumed, and not becoming a component part of a copyrighted motion picture film, newspaper, or periodical, except that portion or percentage of tangible personal property used or consumed in producing an advertising supplement that becomes a component part of a newspaper or periodical is subject to tax. For purposes of this subdivision, tangible personal property that becomes a component part of a newspaper or periodical and consequently not subject to tax includes an advertising supplement inserted into and circulated with a newspaper or periodical that is otherwise exempt from tax under this subdivision, if the advertising supplement is delivered directly to the newspaper or periodical by a person other than the advertiser, or the advertising supplement is printed by the newspaper or periodical.

(i) To persons licensed to operate commercial radio or television stations if the property is used in the origination or integration of the various sources of program material for commercial radio or television transmission. This subdivision does not include a vehicle licensed and titled for use on public highways or property used in the transmission to or receiving from an artificial satellite.

(j) That is a hearing aid, contact lenses if prescribed for a specific disease that precludes the use of eyeglasses, or any other apparatus, device, or equipment used to replace or substitute for a part of the human body, or used to assist the disabled person to lead a reasonably normal life if the tangible personal property is purchased on a written prescription or order issued by a health professional as defined by section 21005 of the public health code, 1978 PA 368, MCL 333.21005; a hearing aid battery; or eyeglasses prescribed or dispensed to correct the person's vision by an ophthalmologist, optometrist, or optician.

(k) To persons for use or consumption in the rendition of any combination of services, the use or consumption of which is taxable under section 3a(a) or (c) of the use tax act, 1937 PA 94, MCL 205.93a, except that this exemption is limited to the tangible personal property located on the premises of the subscriber and to central office equipment or wireless equipment, directly used or consumed in transmitting, receiving, or switching or the monitoring of switching of a 2-way interactive communication. As used in this subdivision, central office equipment or wireless equipment does not include distribution equipment including cable or wire facilities.

(l) That is a vehicle not for resale to a Michigan nonprofit corporation organized exclusively to provide a community with ambulance or fire department services.

(m) To inmates in a penal or correctional institution purchased with scrip issued and redeemed by the institution.

(n) To or for the use of students enrolled in any part of a kindergarten through twelfth grade program, of textbooks sold by a public or nonpublic school.

(o) Installed as a component part of a water pollution control facility for which a tax exemption certificate is issued pursuant to part 37 (water pollution control facilities; tax exemption) of the natural resources and environmental protection act, 1994 PA 451, MCL 324.3701 to 324.3708, or an air pollution control facility for which a tax exemption certificate is issued pursuant to part 59 (air pollution control facility; tax exemption) of the natural resources and environmental protection act, 1994 PA 451, MCL 324.5901 to 324.5908.

(p) To a purchaser of a new motor vehicle purchased before January 1, 1993 if the purchaser qualifies for a special registration under section 226(12) of the Michigan vehicle code, 1949 PA 300, MCL 257.226, and the vehicle is purchased through a country determined by the department to be providing a like or complete exemption for the purchase of a new motor vehicle to be removed from that country.

(q) That is the following sold or leased to an industrial laundry after December 31, 1997:

(i) Textiles and disposable products including, but not limited to, soap, paper, chemicals, tissues, deodorizers and dispensers, and all related items such as packaging, supplies, hangers, name tags, and identification tags.

(ii) Equipment, whether owned or leased, used to repair and dispense textiles including, but not limited to, roll towel cabinets, slings, hardware, lockers, mop handles and frames, and carts.

(iii) Machinery, equipment, parts, lubricants, and repair services used to clean, process, and package textiles and related items, whether owned or leased.

(iv) Utilities such as electric, gas, water, or oil.

(v) Production washroom equipment and mending and packaging supplies and equipment.

(vi) Material handling equipment including, but not limited to, conveyors, racks, and elevators and related control equipment.

(vii) Wastewater pretreatment equipment and supplies and related maintenance and repair services.

Sec. 9. (1) The tax imposed by this act shall be administered by the commissioner pursuant to 1941 PA 122, MCL 205.1 to 205.31, and this act. In case of conflict between the provisions of 1941 PA 122, MCL 205.1 to 205.31, and this act, the provisions of this act shall prevail.

(2) The department shall promulgate rules to implement this act pursuant to the administrative procedures act of 1969, 1969 PA 306, MCL 24.201 to 24.328.

(3) A claim for a refund under the 1991 amendatory act amending section 4a to provide for the exemption of subsurface irrigation pipe shall be filed not later than September 30, 1991. The approved refunds shall be paid without interest.

(4) A claim for a refund for the exemption provided by the 1998 amendatory act that added subdivision (q) to section 4a shall be filed not later than 90 days after the effective date of the amendatory act that added this subsection.

This act is ordered to take immediate effect.
