The term “senior Senator” is often used in several capacities. Sometimes it refers to seniority and sometimes to age and sometimes to one’s level of maturity. But today the senior Senator, in terms of age, from Genesee County is celebrating a birthday. Protests

Senators Stille, Van Regenmorter and Steil, under their constitutional right of protest (Art. 4, Sec. 18), protested against the passage of Senate Bill No. 967.

Senator Stille’s statement, in which Senators Van Regenmorter and Steil concurred, is as follows:

I don’t feel very good about voting “no” on a budget bill that deals with the funding of our 15 universities, and that’s why I need to explain why I did vote “no.”

At some point in time you literally have to draw a line in the sand and say enough is enough. I've been here eight years now and dealt with eight different budgets on higher education, and every one of those years the university in my district has been 15th out of 15.

Percentages are deceiving. So when we say that this university got a 14 percent increase, 14 percent of a small number is a small increase compared to a 6.9 percent increase of a large number. That's a large increase. While one university gets a $23 million increase, another university gets a $7 million increase, and we don't count all of their students. That smacks of inequity.

So at this point I am just going on record of saying that I object to the process that we've been confronted with for the number of years that I've been here that tends to bring out the same results year after year. The fastest growing university with some of the best standards in the state continues to lag behind others in terms of student funding.

With that in mind, I could not support this bill. I want you to know that I support the funding and the efforts of the state in supporting higher education. I just want to make sure that all 15 are on the same scale.

Senators Goschka, Gougeon, North and Koivisto moved that they be named co-sponsors of the following bill:

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senator Miller asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Miller’s statement is as follows:

I am here to support this bill, Senate Bill No. 1072. But, Mr. President, when this environmental protection, toxic substance act that former colleague, John C. Hertel—who sat, when I recall, right where Senator Young is sitting—22 years ago put this bill up, this state faced some very serious crises with the PPB substance. When there was no one in the Senate at the time to address this issue, I recall Senator Hertel chaired the agricultural committee and did a very, very outstanding job to help assist at that time Governor Milliken bring this problem under control.

It’s kind of sad to see us have to repeal this bill, but at the same time, it held its place in our state to provide tremendous protection for consumers and also, at the same, helped all the thousands of farmers who had to deal with a very serious problem.

So I would just like the members to know that John Hertel did a great job on this bill as chairman of the ag committee, and it’s kind of a sad day to see that we are repealing this bill. But thank God that we don’t need it any longer, Mr. President.

The following bill was read a third time:

Senate Bill No. 1073, entitled
