Rep. Michael C. Murphy, from the 68th District, offered the following invocation:

“I knew you; you knew me. Each of us could clearly see, by that inner light divine, the meaning of your life and mine. We would clasp our hands in friendliness, and then we would differ less, if I knew you and you knew me. Father God in heaven, we thank You for this day. We thank You, Lord, that we can assemble together as the Michigan House of Representatives. Lord, we are reminded of our responsibility. We are reminded, Lord, that we are to walk humbly, do justice and love mercy. We pray that You would be with us this day as we take care of the people’s business of this state. Search us and know us; try us and lead us in Your way. We give You praise, glory and honor in Your name. Amen.”

Rep. Palmer moved that Rep. Huizenga be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Meisner, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

In these difficult budgetary times, we in state government are asking of our constituents great, great sacrifice. From huge cuts in adult education funding to less money for our cities, we have asked the people of Michigan to tighten their belts. This bill would make a mockery of their sacrifice by increasing the budget for state government functions, especially a politically-inspired expenditure on behalf of our attorney general. I can not, in good conscience, support such an effort.”

Reps. Accavitti, Jamnick, Gillard, Elkins, Farrah, Adamini, Brown, Vagnozzi, Hopgood, Anderson, Murphy and Condino, having reserved the right to explain their protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I have voted no today on the General Government budget because I believe that it is irresponsible to increase funds in a partisan fashion to one department by more than 15 percent while the departments trying to provide service to our state’s citizens are being cut by an average of 6.6 percent. All of us have to share the pain that comes with Michigan’s budget crisis. The Attorney General’s office is no exception.”

Rep. Dennis, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I have voted no today on the General Government budget because I believe that it is irresponsible to increase funds in a partisan fashion to one department by more than 15 percent while the departments trying to provide service to our state’s citizens are being cut by an average of 6.6 percent. All of us have to share the pain that comes with Michigan’s budget crisis. The Attorney General's office is no exception. I also voted no because I believe it is time to take a stand on some of the bad-faith dealings that seem to have become more and more a part of the legislative process. Throughout the budget process, House Democrats have worked to build a fiscally responsible budget that reasonably reflects the condition of our state's coffers. Through the process, issues were debated and negotiated and agreements were forged between House Democrats and House Republicans. At EVERY turn, those compromises were ignored and agreements were broken."

Rep. Zelenko, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

All of us have to share the pain that comes with Michigan's budget crisis. The Attorney General's office is no exception. The question as to what has changed in the Attorney General's office that warrants such an increase in that budget could not be answered. Throughout the budget process, House Democrats have worked to build a fiscally responsible budget that reasonably reflects the condition of our state's coffers. Through the process, issues were debated, negotiated and agreements were forged between House Democrats and House Republicans. More times than not, those compromises were ignored and agreements were broken when the bills came to the floor for a vote."

Rep. Minore, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I vote no today on Senate Bill 270, the General Government Budget, because I believe it is time to take a stand on some of the bad-faith dealings that seem to have become more and more a part of the legislative process. Throughout the budget process, House Democrats have worked to build a fiscally responsible budget that reasonably reflects the condition of our state's coffers. Rep. Kolb, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I have voted no today on the General Government budget because I believe that it is irresponsible to increase funds in a partisan fashion to one department by more than 15 percent while the departments trying to provide service to our state's citizens are being cut by an average of 6.6 percent. All of us have to share the pain that comes with Michigan's budget crisis. The Attorney General's office is no exception. No one office should be given such favoritism when so many worth programs are being slashed during this fiscal crisis."

House Resolution No. 84.

A resolution to urge the United States Environmental Protection Agency to take immediate action to remove hazardous and toxic waste from Grassy Island.

Whereas, Grassy Island lies in the Detroit River, 1 kilometer east of Wyandotte. The island has an area of 29 hectares surrounded by 93 hectares of shoal; and

Whereas, Grassy Island has been under federal control since 1843. In 1959, the United States Army Corps of Engineers began to dispose of polluted dredged material from the Rouge River on 300 acres surrounding Grassy Island; and

Whereas, On August 3, 1961, the Congress of the United States enacted legislation to create the Wyandotte National Wildlife Refuge in the lower Detroit River, and this refuge included Grassy Island and surrounding shoals. The establishment of the Wyandotte National Wildlife Refuge reduced the disposal area for the dredged material to 72 acres; and

Whereas, On August 15, 1999, the United States Geological Survey, Biological Resources Division, conducted a comprehensive survey of the contaminated material dumped on Grassy Island. The survey revealed concentrations of metals and organic compounds on the island and in the surrounding shoal that exceed United States Environmental Protection Agency limits; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the United States Environmental Protection Agency to take immediate action to remove the hazardous and toxic waste from Grassy Island; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the United States Environmental Protection Agency and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.
