House Resolution No. 224.

A resolution commemorating the 20th anniversary of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons for their valuable contributions to medical research and education in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, We are proud to join with the members, officers, and friends of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons as they gather to mark its 20th anniversary. This milestone is a reflection of disciplined work and a commitment to the common good that is most commendable. While the members of this distinguished organization celebrate 20 years of service, we offer our thanks for the important gifts they have shared within Michigan and throughout the United States; and

Whereas, The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons can trace its origins back to 1984. In the years that have followed, this organization has adapted to changes in society, membership, and expectations. This ability to grow and change has demonstrated the belief that members have maintained in their mission of advancing medical training and expanding skill levels; and

Whereas, With ceremonies to celebrate its history, the members and officers of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons will remember the vision of many people and the hours and years of dedication that have brought the group to this point. Fittingly, as they look to the past, they will also be casting an eye to the future and to the many areas in which the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons will continue to reach out in our state; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the 20th anniversary of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons and to express appreciation for their valuable contributions in the state of Michigan; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons as evidence of our esteem.
