Rep. Paula K. Zelenko, from the 50th District, offered the following invocation:

“Heavenly Father, we thank You for this, another beautiful day. O Lord, we pray You Yourself in us.

Instill in us Your strength, courage, wisdom, and grace so that we may humbly serve You and in turn serve those who we were chosen to represent.

Remember, O Lord, all of our armed forces in this land who are serving for the cause of peace.

Send Your holy angels to protect them and strengthen the hearts of their families who long for their safe return.

Father, we ask You to lift the heavy burden of grief for those who mourn for those earthly lives recently taken. Comfort them and heal them. Renew their spirit and sweetness of purpose. Especially on his day, lay Your hand of love and comfort on Representative Caswell and his family.

Remember, O Lord, the people of this great state of Michigan—especially our children, our elderly, our poor, our ill, our unemployed, and those who are in any kind of affliction, necessity or distress.

Hear us and teach us to be mindful of their needs and grant us the quickness of action to assist them.

Remember, O Lord, our God, all our civil authorities in this world, this nation, this state, particularly, all legislators, staff and employees who have convened here in this sacred house.

Loom in our hearts the spirit of Your wisdom that we may guide this state in all righteousness, holiness and justice.

Give us the courage and grace to set aside our philosophical and political differences when challenges are great. Father, teach us humility, humanity, and instill that we are the strongest when we are one with our purpose.

Bless us and guide us unto every good work. Grant us safe passage and return everyone home safely to our families.

Merciful and compassionate Lord, for the peace above and salvation of our souls, we send up the glory, the thanksgiving, the honor and the worship.

We ask the reward of Your grace and eternal love, now and ever and ever unto ages of ages. Amen.”
