Reverend Roland Arthur Caldwell of Burnette Inspirational Ministries of Detroit offered the following invocation:

Eternal God our Father, we thank You for being our God and our Savior. We thank You for Your love, Your kindness, and Your mercy. We pray now that Your hand will be upon us and would be upon this body. We pray that Your hand would be upon our President and our leaders. We pray that You would guide us and protect us. We pray that You would guide our footsteps, order our words. Let us say what You want us to say, and help us to know what You want us to know.

Help us to lead the people in the right direction. Give us the wisdom and the knowledge to elevate our level of thinking, our level of living. We will give Your name praise throughout eternity. In Jesus' name it is so. Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Cherry, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Statements

Senator Scott asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Scott’s statement is as follows:

I’m still happy today. So today I bring you more sage advice by way of an old and traditional African proverb. It says, “Usually, what we travel miles to see is closer than we think.” Sometimes I feel I’ve been traveling a long distance for a very long time as I deliver my messages on insurance reform. But I am hopeful, and I’m even more hopeful now, that the proverb is accurate and that passage of my bills is closer than I think. In fact, many of the solutions to the insurance problems lie right within this chamber.

Each day each and every one of you has it within your power to end my journey and bring resolution to a three-decade problem. If only you would hear my plea, on behalf of all drivers and homeowners in Michigan, to please move my bills.

By unanimous consent the Senate returned to the order of
