Senate Bill 1132 (as introduced 2-19-08)
Sponsor: Senator Ron Jelinek
Committee: Agriculture

Date Completed: 2-29-08

CONTENT

The bill would amend the Renewable Fuels Commission Act to require the Commission to report on the source of alternative fuels that are sold in the State; where producers of alternative fuels located in the State sell the fuels; and the impact of alternative fuels on the State's economy.

The Act establishes the Renewable Fuels Commission within the Michigan Department of Agriculture, and requires the Commission to investigate and make recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature regarding alternative fuels.

The Act is scheduled to be repealed on January 1, 2010. The bill would delay the repeal to January 1, 2012.
