Rep. Paul E. Opsommer, from the 93rd District, offered the following invocation:

“We will be reciting from Psalm 19:7-9:

The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul;
 The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple;
 The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;
 The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes;
 The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever;
 The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

Good and holy Father, as we stand here before You, will You please give us the strength, the courage, and the wisdom to make the laws pure and enduring as we need to help the citizens of Michigan. We ask Your help, in Your name, Amen.”

Reps. Hildenbrand, Elsenheimer, Hansen, Genetski, Walsh, Pavlov, Moore, Kurtz, Daley, Stamas, Tyler, Ball, Terry Brown, Caul, Crawford, Denby, Griffin, Horn, Kowall, Lori, Lund, Marleau, Mayes, Meekhof, Pearce, Rogers, Spade and Valentine offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 228.

A resolution to urge the Governor to rescind her Proclamation making March 20, 2010 Michigan Meatout Day.

Whereas, Agriculture in Michigan contributes $71.3 billion annually to Michigan's economy, and a large share of this figure comes from the livestock industry with cattle, poultry, and hogs ranking in the top ten of agricultural commodities in the state; and

Whereas, Past announcements regarding not eating meat by public officials have proven to have a dramatic and negative effect on markets both locally and nationally; and

Whereas, As other areas of the state's economy continue to decline, agriculture has continued to grow and expand here in the state and such an announcement by the Governor could have a devastating effect on the livestock industry in Michigan; and

Whereas, Instead of urging citizens not to eat meat, the Governor should instead be stressing the importance of a well balanced diet that includes, meats, vegetable, fruits, and grains; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the Governor to rescind her proclamation declaring March 20, 2010 Michigan Meatout Day and focus instead on promoting the importance of a well balanced diet that includes meats, vegetables, fruits and grains; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Tyler, Ball, Lisa Brown, Terry Brown, Caul, Constan, Crawford, Daley, Denby, Gonzales, Griffin, Horn, Robert Jones, Kowall, Kurtz, Liss, Lori, Lund, Marleau, Mayes, Meekhof, Pearce, Rogers, Segal, Slavens, Spade, Stanley, Valentine and Walsh offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 229.

A resolution to declare March 20, 2010, as Agriculture Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Agriculture is the second largest industry in the state of Michigan and during our most recent economic hardships, agriculture in Michigan has grown; and

Whereas, Michigan is a national leader in the production of more than 125 separate commodities on a commercial basis; and

Whereas, Michigan's agricultural economy is stronger than the economy in general. Michigan has over 500 food processors. The state has seen 3,000 new farms develop in the past decade. There are 56,000 farms in Michigan; and

Whereas, Michigan farmers and ranchers contribute more than $71 billion in high-quality food, fiber and flower crops annually to the state's economy; and

Whereas, Michigan's many microclimates permit the growing of grains, corn, beans, celery, apples, cherries and grapes among others; and

Whereas, Michigan's livestock and dairy sector produce superior quality beef, poultry and pork products enjoyed throughout the world; and

Whereas, Our abundant natural resources continue to make Michigan a great place to live, work and play. As the state continues to recover from the most recent economic struggles, agriculture will continue to play a vital role in our long-term recovery; and

Whereas, Michigan agriculture is a renewable economic resource for the state, employing more than one million people and creating income that is replenished every year in the state; and

Whereas, Michigan agriculture is a family affair, with families or partners owning the overwhelming majority of the state's farms and agricultural facilities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare March 20, 2010, as Agriculture Day in the state of Michigan. We recognize and honor the achievements and contributions of farmers, ranchers, and the thousands of people involved in jobs relating to Michigan agriculture.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Haveman, Elsenheimer, Haines, Moss, Meekhof, Rocca, Bennett, Mayes, Wayne Schmidt, Horn, Neumann, Hansen, Marleau, Kowall, Kurtz, Ball, Kandrevas, Byrum, Roy Schmidt, Geiss, Constan, Slezak, Denby, Lori, Tyler, Bolger, Crawford, Pearce, Paul Scott, Proos, Spade, Polidori, Espinoza, Lahti, Rick Jones, McMillin, Genetski, Booher, Haugh, Liss, Haase, Griffin, Meadows, Melton, Stamas, Schuitmaker, Rogers, Opsommer, Hildenbrand, DeShazor, Knollenberg, Caul, Agema, Amash, Meltzer, Moore, Lund, Bettie Scott, McDowell, Calley, Walsh, Pavlov, Daley, Sheltroun, Green, Clemente, Terry Brown, Cushingberry, Young and Lindberg offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 230.

A resolution to urge the Department of Natural Resources and Environment to approve the pending air quality permits for the Wolverine Power Plant and Holland Municipal Expansion projects.

Whereas, Business and residential demand for electricity is projected to grow an average of 1.2 percent per year over the next 20 years according to the Governor's 21st Century Energy Plan. Base-load power plants are primary suppliers of electricity and it has been more than 20 years since a base-load power plant has been constructed in Michigan. The average age of the state's power plants is 48 years; and

Whereas, The Holland Board of Public Works submitted an application for a permit-to-install to the Department of Environmental Quality (now the Department of Natural Resources and Environment) in January 2007 seeking approval to expand their existing base-load capacity at the James DeYoung Generating Station with the construction of a new boiler generating 78 megawatts of electricity. The Wolverine Power Supply Cooperative submitted an application for a permit-to-install to the department in September 2007 seeking approval to construct a new base-load power plant in Rogers City with the capacity to generate 600 megawatts of electricity. Both plants have the capacity to convert biomass to electricity to supplement the energy produced by coal, which is the principle fuel. In 2004, the department trumpeted its ability to issue permits-to-install in 6 months or less. These vital energy capacity projects are entering their fourth and third year of limbo waiting approval, which is an egregious delay; and

Whereas, Wolverine Power Supply Cooperative was awarded a nearly $3 million dollar federal grant to construct a carbon capture and storage project at the new base-load facility. The grant awarded by the U.S. Department of Energy is part of the federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 and is contingent upon approval of the permit-to-install. Wolverine would use the grant to install technologies that reduce carbon dioxide emissions, which would help position Michigan as a leader in developing and implementing green energy technologies. Wolverine is seeking additional federal grants that could provide more than $100 million for construction of the new base-load capacity; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we to urge the Department of Natural Resources and Environment to approve the pending air quality permits for the Wolverine Power Plant and Holland Municipal Expansion projects; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor and the Director of the Department of Natural Resources and Environment.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Energy and Technology.

Reps. Byrum, Bauer, Ball, Opsommer, Calley, Rick Jones, Meadows, Terry Brown, Caul, Denby, Gonzales, Griffin, Horn, Kowall, Liss, Lori, Marleau, Mayes, Pearce, Rogers, Slavens, Spade, Stanley, Tyler and Valentine offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 231.

A resolution to urge Google to select Mid-Michigan as a test market community for its proposed super high-speed broadband fiber network.

Whereas, Google is a technology company dedicated to organizing information and making it universally accessible to all. In February 2010, Google announced plans to build an experimental ultra high-speed broadband network in one or more U.S. municipalities with a minimum population of 50,000. The Google network will deliver Internet services at speeds 100 times faster than currently available to most households. The Internet service will be offered at competitive prices to the residents of the selected communities; and

Whereas, Mid-Michigan, is in a unique position to offer a technically advanced and varied community to Google as it builds and tests a high-speed network. Proximity to Michigan State University, the Sparrow Health System and Ingham Regional Medical Center, the state capital and businesses such as Jackson National Life and Auto Owner's Insurance would allow a true and rigorous test of the network's capabilities. Mid-Michigan provides a balance as an urban center, while having many rural, under-served, areas. High-speed Internet access would enhance and broaden the education system and provide the area's people with opportunities beyond their current school buildings; and

Whereas, Access to a next generation, high-speed Internet network will allow area educators, health care employees and technology firms to advance their programs and businesses. At a time when Michigan needs to attract new business and to transform its economy, Google's experimental network is ideal for our current needs; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge Google to select Mid-Michigan as a test market community for its proposed super high-speed broadband fiber network; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Google, headquartered in Mountain View, California.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Energy and Technology.

Reps. Byrum, Meekhof, Elsenheimer, Hildenbrand, Neumann, Agema, Rick Jones, Spade, Polidori, Roy Schmidt, Calley, Amash, Terry Brown, Haveman, Bennett, Scripps, Valentine, McDowell, Moore, Haines, Lund, Denby, Griffin, Horn, Lori, Huckleberry, Stamas, Wayne Schmidt, Liss, Proos, Pavlov, Pearce, Opsommer, Tyler, Bolger, Sheltroun, Mayes, Ball, Crawford, Daley, Kowall, Marleau, Rogers and Walsh offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 232.

A resolution to express disappointment over the Governor's proclamation supporting a "meatout" day and affirming support for all of Michigan's agricultural industries, including dairy and meat producers.

Whereas, Governor Jennifer Granholm has issued a proclamation declaring Saturday, March 20, 2010, "meatout" day, encouraging Michigan residents to eat a more healthy diet by eliminating meat for the day. The proclamation claims that eliminating meat from one's diet is supposed to provoke healthy eating of fruits and vegetables, while reducing food budget costs; and

Whereas, Michigan has a great and proud institution of dairy farming, which provides plentiful meats for consumption by state residents. The agriculture cash receipts for Michigan meat animals totaled $640,101,000 in 2008; and

Whereas, A balanced diet includes foods from all the major food groups including meat. Red meat provides high quality proteins, amino acids, and iron, essential nutrients to the human body. Few plant foods provide protein or iron in necessary quantities. Meat is also a main source of Vitamin B12, needed for proper red blood cell formation, neurological function, and DNA synthesis. Michigan residents should be encouraged to eat a balanced diet and exercise regularly to achieve a healthy lifestyle; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we express disappointment over the Governor's proclamation supporting a "meatout" day and affirming support for all of Michigan's agricultural industries, including dairy and meat producers; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to Governor Granholm.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.
