Rep. Robert Dean, from the 75th District, offered the following invocation:

“Almighty God, Father of all mankind, Lord of lords and King of kings, Thou who hast brought us to this eventful, long-expected day of destiny, we pause amid the roar of battle and the flood of words to bow in prayer, humble, sincere prayer, to Thee.

In this hour we find it extremely difficult to keep our thoughts on prayer and meditation. We are eager to hear the latest reports from yonder battlefields where the results of careful planning are being realized. We are attempting to be in Iraq, Afghanistan and America at the same time. Forgive us if we seem to be excited and a trifle unsteady this upcoming 4th of July, this history-making period, this moment when men are struggling, dying, but plunging bravely forward while life remains.

O God, be with the armies of the United States as they press onward against the defenses of the enemy. May confusion reign in the hearts of those arrayed against us. After 9 years, may war-weary peoples press for the end of this war and for peace.

Christ of God, as Thou didst look upon the multitudes and had compassion upon them, look upon those in uniform, upon those at home who love them, with that same compassion. Stay with us. Abide with us. Sustain our country in this terrible night of conflict and bring us to the morning at last. In Christ Jesus’ name, Amen.”

Rep. Angerer moved that Rep. Espinoza be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

By unanimous consent the House considered House Resolution No. 310 out of numerical order.

The Speaker, on behalf of the entire membership of the House of Representatives, offered the following resolution:
House Resolution No. 310.

A resolution of tribute offered as a memorial for Marvin Leonel Esch, former member of the House of Representatives.

Whereas, With the passing of Marvin Leonel Esch, Michigan and our country have lost a gentleman of great unselfishness and service. To the family that was the center of his life and his many friends across this state, we extend our sincere condolences; and

Whereas, Like so many of his generation, Marvin Esch’s life was touched by World War II. A veteran who served in the Army, Marvin Esch had earlier served with the U.S. Maritime Service and was aboard a Liberty Ship when it struck a German mine in the Atlantic and he was forced into a lifeboat. This devotion to his country remained a hallmark of his entire life; and

Whereas, A graduate of the University of Michigan who earned bachelor’s, master’s and doctoral degrees there, Marvin Esch was fiercely loyal to the Maize and Blue his entire life. Prior to entering elective service, he taught at his alma mater and at Wayne State University. In 1964, his strong sense of public duty led to him to the Michigan House of Representatives, where he served during a legislature that implemented many of the provisions of the new Michigan Constitution. In 1966, he was elected to the first of his five terms in the United States House of Representatives; and

Whereas, Congressman Esch was at the center of many of the key issues at a volatile time in our nation’s history. He worked on the transition to a volunteer military and fought racial discrimination in our education system. Even after he left the House, he continued his contributions as an education advisor to Presidents Reagan and George H. W. Bush. He also devoted himself to civic and charitable initiatives. Clearly, Marvin Esch displayed a loyalty to service to his country and community that will long be felt; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we offer this expression of our highest tribute to honor the memory of Marvin Leonel Esch, a member of this legislative body from 1965 to 1966 and a member of the U.S. House of Representatives from 1967 to 1976; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Esch family as evidence of our lasting esteem for his memory.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted by unanimous standing vote.

I voted No because I do not like state and federal centralized databases with citizens’ very personal health and prescription information. This bill expands those able to access this database and will give greater opportunities for abuse of that personal information. If ‘doctor shopping’ is perceived to be a serious problem, then I believe other ways can be found to curtail it other than exposing all MI citizens to giving greater access to their very personal prescription and health information.”

Rep. Miller, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Glad to see the Michigan House can take time out of regularly scheduled business to do the bidding of corporate lobbyists. Oh wait, that is regular business in the Michigan House. This retroactively costs the state $5.5 million annually at a time when we are struggling to fund important priorities like education, health care, and transportation. This when the excise tax is already set to phase out. I cannot accept business as usual and the people of Michigan shouldn't either.”

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Lisa Brown, Byrnes, Constan, Gonzales, Robert Jones, Kandrevas, Kennedy, Liss, Lori, Miller, Polidori, Slavens, Smith, Stanley, Switalski, Valentine and Warren offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 309.

A resolution to memorialize the United States Senate to take swift actions to enact an extension of unemployment benefits and payments to the states under the Federal Medicaid Assistance Percentages program.

Whereas, The United States Senate's recent failure to provide an extension of unemployment benefits and payments to the states under the Federal Medicaid Assistance Percentages (FMAP) funding program has threatened working families across this country and placed states in a most difficult situation. This action, taken within days of most states ending the current fiscal year and as Michigan grapples with its own grave budget situation, could be a crippling blow to the fragile economic recovery. For the workers trying to cope with double digit unemployment and the collapse of housing values, the prospect of the end of unemployment benefits is dire; and

Whereas, Failure to extend FMAP could create an additional budget shortfall of $500 million in the state of Michigan. The loss of this money would also threaten prescription drug coverage, mental health services, payments to Medicaid providers, revenue sharing, and university funding; and

Whereas, With the number of people suffering from long-term unemployment in this country already at frightening levels, the determination in the United States Senate not to extend these programs is damaging in many ways. Not only are hundreds of thousands of workers in Michigan alone facing an untenable situation, the stimulating effects of people putting their unemployment benefits directly into the economy will also be lost; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the United States Senate to take swift actions to enact an extension of unemployment benefits and payments to the states under the Federal Medicaid Assistance Percentages program; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Labor.
