ARTICLE II

Sec. 9. The people reserve to themselves the power to propose laws and to enact and reject laws, called the initiative, and the

1 power to approve or reject laws enacted by the legislature, called 2 the referendum. The power of initiative extends only to laws which 3 the legislature may enact under this constitution. The power of 4 referendum does not extend to GENERAL APPROPRIATION acts making 5 appropriations ~~for state institutions~~ THAT SUBSTANTIALLY FUND 1 OR 6 MORE STATE DEPARTMENTS or TO ACTS MAKING APPROPRIATIONS to meet 7 deficiencies in state funds and must be invoked in the manner 8 prescribed by law within 90 days following the final adjournment of 9 the legislative session at which the law was enacted. To invoke the 10 initiative or referendum, petitions signed by a number of 11 registered electors, not less than eight percent for initiative and 12 five percent for referendum of the total vote cast for all 13 candidates for governor at the last preceding general election at 14 which a governor was elected shall be required.

15 No law as to which the power of referendum properly has been 16 invoked shall be effective thereafter unless approved by a majority 17 of the electors voting thereon at the next general election.

18 Any law proposed by initiative petition shall be either
19 enacted or rejected by the legislature without change or amendment 20 within 40 session days from the time such petition is received by 21 the legislature. If any law proposed by such petition shall be 22 enacted by the legislature it shall be subject to referendum, as 23 hereinafter provided.

24 If the law so proposed is not enacted by the legislature 25 within the 40 days, the state officer authorized by law shall 26 submit such proposed law to the people for approval or rejection at 27 the next general election. The legislature may reject any measure

1 so proposed by initiative petition and propose a different measure
2 upon the same subject by a yea and nay vote upon separate roll 3 calls, and in such event both measures shall be submitted by such 4 state officer to the electors for approval or rejection at the next 5 general election.

6 Any law submitted to the people by either initiative or 7 referendum petition and approved by a majority of the votes cast 8 thereon at any election shall take effect 10 days after the date of 9 the official declaration of the vote. No law initiated or adopted 10 by the people shall be subject to the veto power of the governor, 11 and no law adopted by the people at the polls under the initiative 12 provisions of this section shall be amended or repealed, except by 13 a vote of the electors unless otherwise provided in the initiative
14 measure or by three-fourths of the members elected to and serving 15 in each house of the legislature. Laws approved by the people under 16 the referendum provision of this section may be amended by the 17 legislature at any subsequent session thereof. If two or more 18 measures approved by the electors at the same election conflict, 19 that receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.

20 The legislature shall implement the provisions of this 21 section.

22 Resolved further, That the foregoing amendment shall be 23 submitted to the people of the state at the next general election
24 in the manner provided by law.
