Pastor Theodore T. Turman, Pastor of First Baptist Church of Detroit in Southfield, offered the following invocation:

“Dear God,
We give You thanks for the beauty of this day and for the fresh start it represents.
We thank You for these men and women assembled here who have answered the call to Public Service.
We pray that they would be ever mindful of the great responsibility that rests on their shoulders.
We pray that they would take to heart the words found in Christian scripture, ‘that he that is greatest among You shall be Your servant.’
Give this Legislature the strength, courage, and wisdom to meet the challenges of our day.
Where those would speak of conflict and dissension, let them speak of peace and reconciliation.
Where those would speak of hate and fear, let them speak of love and faith.
Where those would speak of divisions, let them speak of cooperation.
Where those would speak of what is best for Democrats and Progressives or Republicans and Conservatives, let them speak of what is best for our beloved state; One Michigan, rural, urban, and suburban.
Even as the sun shines on us here today, we pray that the light of Your grace would shine on us as well, guiding our way and ordering our steps.
It is in Your great name that we pray and ask all these things.
Amen.”

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Kesto, Howrylak, Cochran, Crawford, Heise, Hooker and Webber offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 272.

A resolution to declare April 24, 2016, as a Day of Remembrance in the state of Michigan for the Armenian Genocide of 1915-1923.

Whereas, Michigan Armenian churches have been involved in numerous charity and community drives across the state, including, but not limited to, providing college scholarships for deserving students and serving Armenian refugee communities across the state; and

Whereas, Between 1915-1923, Armenians were subject to torture, starvation, mass murder, and exile from their historic homeland. Over 1.5 million Armenians lost their lives. The bulk of the Armenian population was displaced from their homes and forced to escape to neighboring and far away communities. Many refugees fled to the United States. Today, Michigan is honored to be home to a vibrant Armenian-American population. This thriving community is a proud reminder of the survival and determination even in the face of extreme injustices. The Armenian Genocide represented a deliberate attempt by the Ottoman Empire to eliminate all traces of a thriving, noble civilization; and

Whereas, Armenian communities all over the world commemorate this tragedy on April 24. On this day, we honor the victims and survivors of the genocide and reaffirm our commitment to preventing future atrocities from being committed against any people; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare April 24, 2016, as a Day of Remembrance in the state of Michigan for the Armenian Genocide of 1915-1923.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,
