The Very Rev. Dr. Susan Carter, Associate Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Lansing, offered the following invocation:

“May the words of my mouth be acceptable to our Creator, and offer comfort and guidance to you in your important work.

It is always valuable to seek the counsel of a sage person – especially for significant events. Such a wise man is Desmond Tutu, archbishop emeritus of Capetown, South Africa, a Nobel Peace Prize Laureate.

For a leader, says Archbishop Tutu, the people need a servant – someone who does not take the role for self-aggrandizement, but instead leads on behalf of all of the people.

The leader, he believes, is someone who does not disappoint when trust is given. A leader demonstrates credibility, especially when it comes with integrity.

We read in the book of Proverbs, that contains the essence of much of our ancestors' wisdom, that when the righteous increase, the people rejoice, but when the wicked rule, the people groan.

And the guidance for that righteous leadership is this: ‘Know well the condition of your flocks, and give attention to your herds.’

You are charged with the condition of your flocks. You have been given the responsibility of paying attention to your herds.

In the words of Dr. Martin Luther King, echoing the prophet Amos: ‘Let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.’ Act justly, be righteous.

The people have raised you up, and you will not disappoint them.

May you be the servant leaders you are called and elected to be as you end this legislative session.

Blessings on you all. Amen.”

Rep. Singh moved that Reps. Garrett and Talabi be excused from today's session.
The motion prevailed.

House Resolution No. 362.

A resolution to declare November 2016 as Gratitude Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The month of November holds national holidays such as Thanksgiving and Veterans Day. These two federal holidays both have a binding commonality as they both bring to the collective memory of our nation the consideration of the gift of sacrifice and its impact on others; and

Whereas, We honor our veterans in the month of November and are thankful for all of their past and future sacrifices. In this month of thanksgiving, we contemplate the untold heroics of our veterans that have allowed us to have the freedom and blessings that we experience today; these sacrifices can never be repaid. They have been a priceless gift to all of the citizens of this great state and the United States of America; and

Whereas, Thanksgiving is a time of enjoyment and reflection which is often overlooked. It's labeled a shopping holiday when reflection on what we are most grateful for is warranted. Thanksgiving Day is a day when families gather and remember to be thankful for what we have been blessed to receive. We are thankful for our families, friends, and community. We are grateful for our jobs and homes and the freedoms that have been graciously bestowed upon us; and

Whereas, With beautiful landscape and great citizens, we have much to be thankful for in this state. We are surrounded by the largest fresh water system in the world. The citizens of this state are world renown and the innovations that have been launched from within these borders have made us proud to be citizens of Michigan. We are grateful to move, live, and have our being in the shadow of those great men and women who have walked this path before us; and

Whereas, The state legislature is grateful for the trust and faith the citizens of Michigan have in this institution. We show gratitude for many reasons, not the least of which science has demonstrated that showing gratitude improves both physical and psychological health which is the foundation of our lives; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 2016 as Gratitude Month in the state of Michigan. We express our gratitude to the constituents of this great state.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Richard D. Snyder, Governor of the state of Michigan, by virtue of the powers and authority vested in the Governor by the Michigan Constitution of 1963 and Michigan law, order the following:

I. DEFINITIONS

As used in this Order:

A. The portion of the administration of the Community Development Block Grant Program and the Michigan Main Street Program performed by the Authority is transferred from the Authority to the Michigan Strategic Fund. As mutually agreed upon by the Michigan State Housing Development Authority and the Michigan Strategic Fund, the transfer includes the Authority personnel who assist with the administration of the Programs and includes the Programs’ records, property, and allocations or other funds, if any. Except as transferred by this section, the Authority shall retain all of its statutory authority, powers, duties, functions, responsibilities, records, personnel, property, and unexpended balances of appropriations, and the Authority shall also retain control of all monies and funds, including but not limited to, grants, bonds, notes, reserves, and trust funds, subject to any agreements of the Authority with note and bond holders.

B. The transfer of the portion of the Authority's personnel who administer the CDBG Program and the Michigan Main Street Program is subject to any agreement executed prior to the issuance of this Order with the Authority's note holders, bond holders, or issuers of instruments that are guaranteed.

Bonds and notes issued by or on behalf of the Authority are obligations of the Authority and not obligations of either this state or the Department. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to alter the status of the Authority as a public body corporate and politic.

F. The President of the Michigan Strategic Fund and the Executive Director of the Authority shall provide executive direction and supervision for the implementation of the transfers under this Section II.

G. The Authority shall exercise its prescribed statutory powers, duties, and functions, including the functions of adjudication, rule-making, licensing, and registration, including any prescription of rules, rates, regulations, and standards, independently of the Director of the Department. The budgeting, procurement, and related management functions of the Authority shall be performed under the direction and supervision of the Director of the Department. When directing and supervising the budgeting, procurement, and related management functions of the Authority, the Director shall remain cognizant of the rights of the holders of Authority bonds or notes. Certain Authority bond or note contracts may require the Authority to either maintain sufficient personnel or contract for services to plan Authority programs and to supervise enforcement and, where necessary, foreclosure of Authority mortgage agreements. None of the transfers in this Order shall affect the Authority's ability to maintain sufficient personnel or contract for services to plan Authority programs and to supervise enforcement and, when necessary, foreclosure of Authority mortgage agreements.
