Subject to building and use restrictions and easements, if any, together with all tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances pertaining to the land.

(5) The descriptions of the property in subsections (1) to (4) are approximate and, for purposes of a conveyance or transfer under this act, may be adjusted as the department of technology, management, and budget or the department of attorney general considers necessary because of a survey or another legal description.

(6) The department of technology, management, and budget may transfer property described in subsections (1) to (4) with or without consideration through jurisdictional transfer to another state agency. If property is transferred under this subsection, the transfer must be made by an affidavit of jurisdictional transfer in recordable form rather than by quitclaim deed.

(7) The department of technology, management, and budget may take the necessary steps to convey real property described in subsection (1) or (3) using any of the following means:

(a) Any publicly disclosed competitive method of sale, selected to realize the fair market value to this state, as determined by the department of technology, management, and budget.

(b) Offering the property for sale for fair market value to 1 or more units of local government in which the property is located.

(c) Exchanging some or all of the property for other real property if the other real property is determined by the department of technology, management, and budget to be of reasonably equal value to this state.

(d) Offering the property for sale for less than fair market value to the units of local government in which the property is located, subject to the following conditions:

(i) If a unit of local government makes an offer to purchase the property that is accepted by the department of technology, management, and budget, the unit of local government shall enter into a purchase agreement within 60 days after making the offer and complete the conveyance within 180 days after making the offer. The department of technology, management, and budget may extend the time to complete the conveyance as needed.

(ii) The property must be used exclusively for public use for 30 years after the conveyance, subject to subsection (15). If a fee, term, or condition is imposed on members of the public for use of the property, or if such a fee, term, or condition is waived, all members of the public must be subject to the same fees, terms, conditions, and waivers. The public use restriction must be included in the deed.

(iii) If the unit of local government intends to convey the property within 30 years after the conveyance, the unit of local government must first offer the property for sale, in writing, to this state, which may purchase the property at the original sale price. The unit of local government shall provide this state 120 days to consider reacquiring the property. If this state agrees to reacquire the property, this state is not liable to any person for improvements to or liens placed on the property. If this state declines to reacquire the property, the public use restrictions described in subparagraph (ii) remain in effect.

(iv) If the unit of local government retains the property for 30 years after the conveyance, the public use restrictions under subparagraphs (ii) and (iii) automatically terminate, except as provided in subsection (15).

(v) The department of technology, management, and budget may require the unit of local government to reimburse this state at closing for costs demonstrably incurred by this state that were necessary to prepare the property for conveyance.

(e) Transferring the property to the land bank fast track authority created by section 15 of the land bank fast track act, 2003 PA 258, MCL 124.765.

(8) The department of technology, management, and budget shall not convey property under this section unless the conveyance and the terms of the conveyance have been approved by the state administrative board.

(9) If real property is to be sold for fair market value under this section, the fair market value must be determined by an independent fee appraisal prepared for the department of technology, management, and budget, or by an appraiser who is an employee or contractor of this state.

(10) The state agency with jurisdiction over real property conveyed or transferred under this section is responsible for all expenses of maintaining the property until the time of conveyance or transfer.

(11) A deed or affidavit of jurisdictional transfer authorized by this section must be approved as to legal form by the department of attorney general.

(12) Real property conveyed or transferred under this section includes all surplus, salvage, and personal property or equipment remaining on the property on the date of the conveyance or transfer.

(13) This state shall not reserve oil, gas, or mineral rights to property conveyed under this section. However, the conveyance authorized under this act must provide that, if the grantee or any successor develops any oil, gas, or minerals found on, within, or under the conveyed property, the grantee or any successor must pay this state 1/2 of the gross revenue generated from the development of the oil, gas, or minerals. A payment under this subsection must be deposited in the general fund.

(14) A conveyance under this section must reserve to this state all aboriginal antiquities, including mounds, earthworks, forts, burial and village sites, mines, or other relics lying on, within, or under the property, with power to this state and all others acting under its authority to enter the property for any purpose related to exploring, excavating, and taking away the aboriginal antiquities.

(15) If property conveyed under this section was used by this state as a historical monument, memorial, burial ground, park, or protected wildlife habitat area, the grantee or any successor shall maintain and protect the property for that purpose in perpetuity in accordance with applicable law.

(16) The department of technology, management, and budget shall deposit the net revenue received from the sale of property under this section in the state treasury. The state treasurer shall credit the money deposited to the general fund.

(17) If property conveyed under this section is used in a manner that violates any of the restrictions imposed under subsection (7)(d), (13), (14), or (15), this state may reenter and take the property, terminating the grantee's or any successor's estate in the property. An action to regain possession of the property under this section may be brought and maintained by the attorney general on behalf of this state.

(18) If this state reenters and repossesses property under subsection (17), this state is not liable to reimburse any person for any improvements made on the property or to compensate any person for any part of an unfulfilled contract or license issued to provide goods or services on or for the property.

(19) The department of technology, management, and budget may require a grantee of property conveyed under this section to record the instrument of conveyance or jurisdictional transfer with the appropriate register of deeds and provide the department of technology, management, and budget with a recorded copy of the recorded instrument.

(20) As used in this section:

(a) "Fair market value" means the highest estimated price that the property will bring if offered for sale on the open market, allowing a reasonable time to find a purchaser who would buy with knowledge of the property's possible uses.

(b) "Net revenue" means the proceeds from the sale of the property less reimbursement for any costs to the department of technology, management, and budget associated with the sale, including, but not limited to, administrative costs, including employee wages, salaries, and benefits; costs of reports and studies and other materials necessary to the preparation of sale; environmental remediation; legal fees; and any litigation costs related to the conveyance.

(c) "Public use" means, subject to subdivision (d), actual use of the property by members of the public or actual use by the unit of local government for any of the following:

(i) Publicly owned and operated correctional facilities.

(ii) Law enforcement purposes.

(iii) Emergency management response purposes.

(iv) Public educational use.

(v) Public transportation.

(vi) Public parks and recreational areas.

(vii) Public health uses.

(viii) Wildlife conservation or restoration.

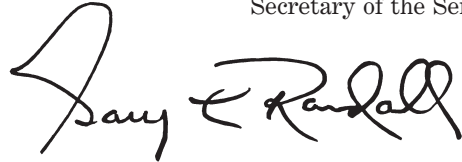

(d) "Public use" does not include use by a for-profit enterprise or any use that is closed to the public.

(e) "Unit of local government" means a township, village, city, county, school district, intermediate school district, or community college district.

This act is ordered to take immediate effect.
