Pastor Solomon Kinloch of Triumph Church of Detroit offered the following invocation:

Come Thou incarnate word, gird with Thy mighty sword. Let Thy word have success, let Thy people be blessed.

Gracious God, our Father, we thank You for this generous gift that no other manufacturer can make and no other competitor can provide: the blessing and enjoyment of another day. The fact that we are alive says little about how good we've been but it speaks volumes about how gracious and good You have been to us. Lord, we are not arrogant and egotistic to believe that we can do anything without Your power and Your presence. So we confess in the flesh, Lord not we, but Thee.

We thank You for the mass of energy, effort, and for this coalition of cooperation. We thank You for these men and women who serve selflessly in order to advance the cause of compassion. I pray now, O God, that You would consecrate their minds, that they would think with clear thoughts, that You would fill their hearts with compassion, that You would direct their hands to continue to do good deeds, and direct their feet to walk in the path that is in alignment with Your will and Your word. I pray that the decisions that they make will be in the best interests of the people and the citizens of this great state.

These and all other blessings we ask in Your precious name, we pray. Amen.

The President pro tempore, Senator Schuitmaker, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Senator Meekhof's statement is as follows:

Today, I have the privilege of remembering and honoring one of our own as a great public servant, Matt Davis, who left us way too early on February 3, 2016. We are joined by Matt's wife, Penny Davis; his three children, Zachary, Henry, and Katherine; Justice Brian Zahra and Justice Robert Young, Jr.

Matt Davis' life was marked by an unwavering passion and commitment to improving the state of Michigan. His professional career started in journalism, where he was able to exemplify his unabated commitment to the truth. He served as Director of Communications for the Michigan Department of Corrections, and the Deputy Director of the Michigan Senate Majority Communications Office. Mr. Davis finished his career as an attorney specializing in civil rights, elections, and campaign finance law.

Those who were fortunate enough to know Mr. Davis knew him as a man with the utmost integrity, a strong work ethic, and a loving family man. I am proud to join with the rest of the Senate in presenting this tribute on behalf of the Senate. We are grateful for Mr. Davis' work, and we appreciate the opportunity to recognize him today.

By unanimous consent the Senate proceeded to the order of Bleeding can also involve the internal organs and the brain that can be life threatening. Recurrent bleeding episodes result in frequent hospitalizations, permanent disability, and chronic pain. Whereas, Specialized care provided by Michigan's nine federally recognized Hemophilia Treatment Centers (HTCs) reduce morbidity and mortality among people with bleeding disorders. HTCs offer patients wrap-around care that includes a variety of services, including medical, nursing, dental, social work, physical therapy, and nutrition; and

Whereas, In 1986, President Ronald Reagan designated March as Bleeding Disorders Awareness Month; now, therefore, be it
