Date Completed: 5-22-18

CONTENT

The bill would amend the Revised School Code to allow the board of a school district or intermediate school to employ an individual without a teaching certificate as a substitute teacher if the individual had at least 60, rather than 90, semester hours of college credit or an associate degree.

The Code allows the board of a school district or intermediate school to employ an individual without a teaching certificate as a substitute teacher if the individual has at least 90 semester hours of college credit from a college or university.

The bill would allow a board of a school district or intermediate school to employ an individual without a teaching certificate as a substitute teacher if the individual had at least 60 semester hours of college credit or an associate degree from a college, university, or community college. The 60 semester hours would not need to be from the same college, university, or community college. The bill would require the Department of Education to amend any applicable rule as necessary to be consistent with these provisions.

The bill would take effect 90 days after being enacted.
