Rev. Karl Pung, Rector of St. Mary Cathedral in Lansing, offered the following invocation:

“Heavenly Father,

We thank You for Your providence and mercy. Help us to do Your will.

Give us hearts to seek You and to recognize Your movements in the people and situations that surround us. Move in and through them to fulfill Your plans.

We invite You into our divisions that they may become sources of healing and reconciliation. May mercy triumph over justice.

Please guide the work of this body to bring Your kingdom to bear.

We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen.”

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Glenn to the Chair.

Rep. Greig moved that Rep. Scott be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Green, Brinks, Chang, Chirkun, Cochran, Elder, Faris, Gay-Dagnogo, Greig, Love, Pagan, Phelps, Rendon, Singh, Sowerby and Yanez offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 356.

A resolution to memorialize the Congress of the United States to amend the Internal Revenue Code to allow feminine-hygiene products to qualify as an eligible expense under flexible spending accounts.

Whereas, Chapter 26, section 125 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code permits employers to offer and maintain flexible spending accounts for their employees. Flexible spending accounts, or FSAs, allow employees to set aside part of his or her paycheck to pay for certain qualified expenses. The money set aside in FSA programs is not considered income by the IRS, and therefore, the money deposited into these programs is removed from the participant’s taxable income; and

Whereas, Flexible spending accounts provide significant benefit to participants. FSAs allow employees to reduce the after-tax cost of medical services and qualified products bought by participants and their dependents. The program allows participants to be reimbursed for these services and products, effectively making them a tax-free expenditure. Under the program, a broad range of services and products are eligible for reimbursement, including doctor office deductibles, prescriptions, eye glasses and contacts, cosmetic dentistry, and others. Products eligible for reimbursement include items such as bandages, adhesive pads and medical gauze. Products eligible for FSA reimbursement do not include feminine-hygiene products; and

Whereas, Feminine-hygiene products are essential to the health care needs of women. Despite the medical necessity, expense, and frequency of need, these products are not eligible for FSA reimbursement, and yet, similar hygiene products are covered under the program. It’s time to make feminine-hygiene products FSA eligible; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we memorialize the Congress of the United States to amend the Internal Revenue Code to allow feminine-hygiene products to qualify as an eligible expense under flexible spending accounts; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of the Michigan congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Health Policy.

Reps. Bizon, Allor, Chirkun, Gay-Dagnogo, Greig, Love, Phelps, Rendon and Yanez offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 357.

A resolution to declare May 30, 2018, as Corporate Responsibility Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Michigan corporations are recognized around the globe as industry leaders in food, manufacturing, energy, agriculture and technology; and

Whereas, Michigan corporations have been doing business as responsible citizens in the State of Michigan and around the world; and

Whereas Michigan corporations employ thousands of citizens in our great state and have committed to building a better future for the communities in which they operate; and

Whereas, Michigan corporations demonstrate ongoing commitment to improving the lives of individuals through food, agriculture and technology; and

Whereas, Corporations are committed to having a diverse and inclusive workforce that represents consumers around the world. These entities purchase goods and services from a wide range of suppliers, including women and minority-owned, stimulating business across the state of Michigan and the world; and

Whereas, Independent organizations around the world assess and recognize these companies for engaging in environmental stewardship, operating with integrity and creating great places to work; and

Whereas, Corporations should be encouraged to integrate corporate responsibility into their business models and are part of the solution to address critical global issues; and

Whereas, The State of Michigan wishes to celebrate the good deeds of our corporate citizens; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare May 30, 2018, as Corporate Responsibility Day in the state of Michigan. We commend our corporate constituents for their dedication to improving the lives of Michiganders on this special day.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reports of Standing Committees

The Committee on Military and Veterans Affairs, by Rep. Wentworth, Chair, reported

House Resolution No. 336.

A resolution to declare June 15, 2018, as Women Veterans Day in the state of Michigan.

(For text of resolution, see House Journal No. 46, p. 835.)

With the recommendation that the following substitute (H-1) be adopted and that the resolution then be adopted.

Substitute for House Resolution No. 336.

A resolution to declare June 15, 2018, as Women Veterans Recognition Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Women have proudly served their country throughout all periods of the history of the United States, whether disguised as male soldiers during the American Revolution and Civil War, as nurses in World War I, or as combat helicopter pilots in Afghanistan; and

Whereas, Women have formally been a part of the United States Armed Forces since the inception of the Army Nurse Corps in 1901, but have informally served since the inception of our nation's military; and

Whereas, During the American Revolution, women served on the battlefield alongside the men, mainly as nurses, water bearers, often called "Molly Pitchers," cooks, laundresses, and saboteurs. Despite Army regulations that only men could enlist, women who wanted to join in the fighting circumvented the rules by masquerading as young men or boys; and

Whereas, In 1917, the Navy announced it would open enlistment to women. About 12,000 female yeomen entered the Navy and filled a variety of jobs, including draftsmen, interpreters, couriers, and translators; and

Whereas, Three hundred seven women enlisted in the Marine Corps during World War I. Like their sisters in the Navy, they were limited to the enlisted ranks and worked mainly in Washington, D.C., doing various administrative jobs. Women's service contributions in World War I showed that they either had, or could quickly learn, nontraditional skills needed by the military; and

Whereas, Following Pearl Harbor, Congress authorized new women's components for each of the services and increased the number of active duty positions in the Army and Navy Nurse Corps. In May 1942, the Army was given the authority to establish the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, also known as the WAACs. The Navy, Coast Guard, and Marine Corps followed suit, but rather than making women an auxiliary component, they opted to enroll them in the reserves on the same basis as their male counterparts, while the Army Air Forces enlisted nearly 1,100 female civilian volunteers who earned their silver wings as Women Airforce Service Pilots (WASP); and

Whereas, At the end of World War II in 1945, of the approximately 12 million people remaining in the Armed Forces, about 280,000 were women; and

Whereas, With the passage of the Women's Armed Services Integration Act of 1948, women became a permanent part of the United States military, but women continued to be restricted to 2 percent of the military population. That restriction was finally lifted in 1967 with the amendment of the Women's Armed Services Integration Act, which also opened senior officer ranks to women; and

Whereas, The early 1990s were a historic time for women in the military with over 40,000 women deploying in support of the Persian Gulf War, making women service members more visible in the eyes of the public. In addition, the Defense Authorization Act in 1992 repealed combat exclusion laws that had prevented women from flying combat aircrafts; and

Whereas, Women who have served in the United States military are often referred to as “invisible veterans” because their service contributions, until the 1970s, went largely unrecognized by politicians, the media, academia, and the general public; and

Whereas, Even though women have been officially serving in the military since the creation of the Army Nurse Corps in 1901, they have not always been considered qualified for veteran status for the purpose of receiving benefits from the Department of Veterans Affairs. Even after women were granted veteran status, issues of access, exclusion, and improper management of their health care still remained; and

Whereas, It was not until well after World War II that women who served in the military began to officially be recognized as veterans; and

Whereas, In the late 1970s and early 1980s, many of the contributions made by women in World War II were formally recognized through laws that granted these women with veteran status for their time in service. This opened the doors for women to take advantage of programs, opportunities, and benefits from the federal and state governments, the Department of Veterans Affairs, and other veteran service organizations; and

Whereas, The 1980 decennial census marked the first time that information on women veterans was ever captured in a large national survey. At the time of the 1980 decennial census, women made up just over 2 percent of the veteran population. Today, that proportion has increased to almost 8 percent; and

Whereas, Over the past 20 years, the Veterans Health Administration (VHA) has introduced initiatives designed to improve health care access and quality of care for women veterans; and

Whereas, In 2008, VHA’s Women Veterans Health Strategic Health Care Group began a five-year plan to redesign the nation’s health care delivery system for women. A fundamental component of this plan was to ensure that all women veterans had access to comprehensive primary care from skilled women’s health providers; and

Whereas, There are currently over 2 million women veterans living in the United States and Puerto Rico. Of this number, nearly 44,000 make Michigan their home; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Reps., That the members of this legislative body declare June 15, 2018, as Women Veterans Recognition Day in the state of Michigan. We urge all Michiganders to honor women veterans on this momentous occasion.
