Pastor Stephen Tschannen, Pastor of Irons Bible Church in Irons, offered the following invocation:

“In the Bible it is written:

‘Beloved, you were called to freedom, only do not turn your freedom into an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For the whole Law is fulfilled in one word, in the statement, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” But if you bite and devour one another, take care lest you be consumed by one another. But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desire of the flesh.’ Galatians 6:13.

Lord God, thank You for the privileges of living under a constitutionally elected government. How grateful we are for the freedoms and opportunities granted each of us. Thank You God for a Legislature that seeks to honor Your sovereign majesty in the acknowledgment of Your providence over the heart and mind in crafting wise and righteous laws for our State.

Lord God, thank You for the privilege of leadership given to the men and women in this Legislative body. Though each person here was elected by their fellow citizens, You Lord have prepared them to serve by granting healthy bodies, educated, experienced minds, as well as economic favor and the approval of their fellow citizens. Lord, You have indeed prepared these men and women to competently and faithfully serve our State.

Therefore, Lord God, I pray that You would grant each of these elected officials an abiding sense of Christian humility and truthfulness empowering them to lead from pure motives. I pray Lord that as this House creates laws, there would dwell in their hearts a genuine desire for cooperation.

Heavenly Father, the task of governing a State is immense in its complexities, and demands. With Your provision of wisdom, direction and insight I pray that the lawmakers here are granted creative and well-informed ideas for shaping our State; ideas allowing our families and communities to thrive in safety and economic prosperity.

Lord God, I pray for Your blessing on the families of the Legislators. In this world of unexpected dangers and troubles, I pray Lord that Your providential grace is abundantly supplied so as to both shield from physical harm and fill their homes with joy and peace.

Finally Lord, I pray for Your blessing that the legislators would feel Your approval resting upon them as they sacrifice their personal time, energy, and finances helping guide and sustain our State’s abundant economic, environmental and human resources.

Lord God Bless their hearts, bless their minds, and bless their efforts, as they faithfully and righteously seek to be Your hand of blessing to the great state of Michigan. I pray all of these things in Jesus Name, Amen.”

Rep. Rabhi moved that Reps. Neeley and Garrett be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

By unanimous consent the House returned to the order of

Messages from the Senate

THIS RESOLUTION IS OFFERED TO COMPLY WITH MCL 333.22215.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 14.

A concurrent resolution to disapprove the proposed final action taken by the Certificate of Need Commission on the Certificate of Need (CON) Review Standards for Immune Effector Cell Therapy (IECT) Services.

Whereas, The Certificate of Need Commission voted on September 19, 2019, to approve a proposed final action on the Certificate of Need (CON) Review Standards for Immune Effector Cell Therapy (IECT) Services. The standards would require providers to receive state approval and third-party accreditation to deliver IECT services to Michigan patients. The proposed final action was submitted on September 24, 2019 to the joint legislative committee established by MCL 333.22219; and

Whereas, Pursuant to MCL 333.22215, the Legislature may disapprove a proposed final action of the CON Commission within 45 days after the date of submission to the members of the joint legislative committee. Legislative disapproval shall be expressed by concurrent resolution adopted by each house of the Legislature. A proposed final action by the CON Commission to develop, approve, disapprove, or revise CON review standards for the initiation, replacement, or expansion of covered clinical services is not effective if it has been disapproved; and

Whereas, The Certificate of Need (CON) Review Standards for Immune Effector Cell Therapy (IECT) Services would limit patient access to innovative, new cancer treatments. Through their review and approval process, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration already requires comprehensive safety criteria and standards for facilities providing cell therapies. It is unnecessary to require additional onerous and costly approvals and accreditations on facilities that go beyond federal government requirements. Additional requirements may discourage or prevent sites from providing IECT services in Michigan; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we disapprove the proposed final action taken on the Certificate of Need (CON) Review Standards for Immune Effector Cell Therapy (IECT) Services by the Certificate of Need Commission on September 19, 2019; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor, the Director of the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, and the Chairperson of the Certificate of Need Commission.

The Senate has adopted the concurrent resolution.

Rep. Crawford was named co-sponsor of the concurrent resolution.

The question being on the adoption of the concurrent resolution,

Rep. Liberati moved that the concurrent resolution be referred to the joint legislative committee established by MCL 333.22219.

The motion did not prevail.
