Rev. James Krueger, Pastor of Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Saginaw Township, offered the following invocation:

“In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Holy and merciful Father in Heaven,

I lift up my voice in thanksgiving to You for the blessings of body and soul and the wisdom which You bestow daily upon the members of this house of elected representatives.

I lift up my voice in celebration for the passion they bring into this chamber each day and their fervent dedication to service marked by integrity and guided by the values which are both the foundation and hallmark of this state and nation.

Guide them as they humbly carry out the expectations of their office and daily increase their devotion and capacity to work together so that all the elected officials of this state seek the common ground that unites them and with their hearts and minds and energies reach out to one another in mutual care and concern and for the benefit of all our citizens.

Strengthen each of these representatives by Your powerful hand and use them as channels through which Your blessings are daily poured out on Your people and in this place and time, grow their ability and desire to be servants to each other and ‘servant-leaders’ to all.

Holy and merciful Father in heaven, I offer this prayer In the name of Your one and only Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom You work each day to accomplish Your will and desire to unite Your people so that with the measure we are blessed by You, we seek to be a blessing to others. Amen.”

The Speaker assumed the Chair.
