Rabbi Amy Bigman, Pastor of Congregation Shaarey Zedek in East Lansing, offered the following invocation:

“The scriptural reading that Jews around the world read last week includes the Ten Commandments, as found in the Book of Exodus. This week’s scriptural reading is comprised of the three chapters which follow the Ten Commandments. It contains teachings regarding the treatment of slaves; damages through neglect or theft; offenses against others through lying, oppression, and unfair business practices; unjust treatment by judges, and much more. Many scholars note that once we learn the lofty lessons of the Ten Commandments, we are to put those lessons to practical use in our daily lives, as noted in the chapters which follow in the Book of Exodus.

In addition to the teachings I noted a moment ago, in this week’s reading we also find, for the first of many times in the Jewish Bible, the injunction ‘You shall not wrong or oppress a stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.’ Both ancient and modern commentators remind us that we know what it feels like to be a stranger — to be other than the majority — and the remembrance of these feelings must guide us in our interactions with everyone whom we encounter.

To our representatives, I urge you to always be cognizant of the people you represent, whether they are like you or not, whether they believe as you do or not, as you make decisions that impact all of us.

May all of you here today — legislators, aides, and all who work on behalf of the residents of the state of Michigan — be blessed with all of the things which Michigan’s residents want and deserve: good health, happiness, love of family and friends, and peace — peace within yourselves, peace within your homes, peace in our communities, and peace in our world.

Thank you. Amen.”

Rep. Rabhi moved that Rep. Pagan be excused from today’s session.
The motion prevailed.

The question being on agreeing to the title of the bill,
Rep. Cole moved to amend the title to read as follows:

A bill to amend 1954 PA 116, entitled "Michigan election law," by amending sections 765 and 765a (MCL 168.765 and 168.765a), section 765 as amended by 2018 PA 603 and section 765a as added by 2018 PA 123, and by adding section 764d.

The motion prevailed.

The House agreed to the title as amended.

Rep. Cole moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Lightner, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I am supportive in part to bill 5141, I am not supportive of having the townships or cities having an agreement with the county to allow a County absent voter counting board. Running an absent voter board and an election is the responsibility of the townships and cities. I understand that Counties have a budget to buy tabulators, however, they are responsible for canvassing the boards, and this portion of the bill does not maintain the integrity of the election by allowing the county to be a part of the absent voter counting board.”

The Speaker Pro Tempore resumed the Chair.

House Bill No. 4396, entitled

A bill to amend 1925 PA 368, entitled “An act to prohibit obstructions and encroachments on public highways; to provide for the removal of obstructions and encroachments on public highways; to prescribe the conditions under which telegraph, telephone, power, and other public utility companies, cable television companies, broadband companies, and municipalities may enter upon, construct, and maintain telegraph, telephone, power, cable television, or broadband lines, pipe lines, wires, cables, poles, conduits, sewers, and like structures upon, over, across, or under public roads, bridges, streets, and waters; and to prescribe penalties and provide remedies.” by repealing section 19 (MCL 247.189).

Explanation of “No” Votes

Rep. Hope, having reserved the right to explain her protesting against the passage of House Bill Nos. 4274 and 4275, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I support the idea of providing more options for individuals in developing their retirement plans, but House Bills 4274-5 in their current form are not the answer. In moving away from pensions, the State shifted the risk to its employees. Thus, it is our responsibility as legislators to ensure the options we are providing to our retirees mitigate their risk. While HB 4274-5 would provide a new annuity option to state employees and public schools teachers, it does not require a financial rating high enough to ensure that the annuity-issuing companies will be able to endure an economic downturn. Until this issue is resolved, I cannot support these bills; the risk to retirees is too great, and the State would be responsible in part for the retirees’ potential losses. I support giving workers more options in their retirement plans, but as an employer, the choices we offer must be safe.”
