Senator Webber’s statement is as follows:

It’s a special privilege to acknowledge the efforts of a member of my team today—Henry Pasho. Today this exceptional student worker will finish the duration of his legislative internship program with my office. During his time in the Michigan Senate, Henry has shown an attention to detail, a no-nonsense work ethic, and a dedication to the constituents of the 9th Senate District. These skills and the dedication he’s shown to the Michigan Senate will only serve to benefit Henry in his future endeavors.

Next week, Henry will graduate from Western Michigan University from the Haworth College of Business with his degree in business administration. I, myself, started as a legislative intern long ago, and I’m excited to see Henry grow as a young professional. Please join me in congratulating him on completing his internship and graduating from college.

Senator McCann’s statement is as follows:

I also am here to bid farewell to a fantastic intern we’ve had in our office this spring semester—if you will, if you can call it spring. This is Maddy Lankford and she has been in our office through the Western Michigan University Capital Internship Program which a number of offices here have been so kind to host those interns from Western so they get a wonderful, enhanced learning experience working with all of us.

We want to wish Maddy very well. She's wrapping up her junior year at Western Michigan University, off to Rome for studying this summer, and then back for one more year to complete her degree at Western. If you would please, greet her and wish her well; I would appreciate it.

Senator Irwin's statement is as follows:

I also have the distinct honor of bidding farewell to one of the great interns in the District 15 office. I have with me today Keith Spencer Howell. Keith as an intern really picked up the work here in Lansing quickly. He was an incredibly thoughtful and committed intern, he's a great writer, and I hope he continues his interest in public service because we need more people with a passion for future generations, protecting our environment—clean air, clean water, the Great Lakes, and all living creatures—and that's something I noticed and respected immediately in Mr. Howell.

I'd like to ask my colleagues in thanking and bidding well-wishes to our intern Keith Howell.

Senator Chang's statement is as follows:

Today I want to recognize two very special people in the Gallery. Dana is one of our MSW interns from Wayne State University. She has been one of our housing experts; she's been our housing expert in the office. Most housing cases or assignments related to housing policy or housing groups—she has touched all of those. She extended her year-long internship into two and stayed on with us. She's worked full-time for the Community Housing Network in Oakland County and interned for us both during the weekdays and on the weekends. She's built incredibly strong relationships with our community-based organizations and we're really sad to see her go.

I also want to recognize Zabi who is an intern from the Western Michigan University political program, and he has been with our office since January. Even though he's only been with us for a semester, he's picked up on things so quickly and is a dedicated team player. He does not hesitate to ask questions about what he doesn't yet understand, is always eager to learn, and his passion for immigration reform and student advocacy have made him a huge asset to Team Chang.

Thank you to Dana and Zabi for all of your hard work.

Senator Cherry's statement is as follows:

This morning I have with me our student intern in our office—Terae King—who has been at the University of Michigan-Flint and is finishing up and will graduate this spring in a few weeks. He's been a great asset to our office, has been loved and admired by our constituents, and has shown a great interest and enthusiasm for public policy.

He was recently elected to the Flint school board and is beginning his public service there. I'm sure he's going to have a wonderful future as he works through that experience and leaves college. I would love if my colleagues would recognize his service with me.

Senator Bayer's statement is as follows:

It is my honor and privilege to recognize—we have two interns; the other one is nearby. I want to recognize and thank both Josh Kaplansky and Victoria Miller, both from Western Michigan University, as many of our interns are from there today, and as well over the past years; just an amazing program. They came so prepared to work, both of them—we put them to work; we've been a little short-handed, so they ended up doing a lot more than anybody ever expected and hoped for, and I can't say how much we appreciate that. To two fantastic interns, Victoria and Josh, I just want to say thank you very much and have that printed into the Journal.

Resolutions

Senator Irwin offered the following resolution:

Senate Resolution No. 35.

A resolution to commemorate the city of Ypsilanti’s 200th Founder’s Day.

Whereas, Ypsilanti, Michigan, was founded on April 22, 1823, as “Woodruff’s Grove” on land belonging to the Anishinaabe people, including the Ojibwe, the Odawa, and the Potawatomi; and

Whereas, As the first settlement in Washtenaw County, Ypsilanti was named after Greek General Demetrius Ypsilanti, a hero in the Greek War of Independence; and

Whereas, Ypsilanti has a proud record of abolition prior to the Civil War, being a part of the Underground Railroad to help free enslaved people; and

Whereas, The Asher Aray family, who had been free for generations, were willing to risk their lives to help fugitive slaves as conductors; and

Whereas, Over 70 Black men from Ypsilanti fought in the Civil War in the 102nd United States Colored Troops Infantry Regiment; and

Whereas, Ypsilanti was home to Helen McAndrew, who established herself as the first female doctor in Washtenaw County, Mary Ann Starkweather, whose charitable generosity contributed to much of the city’s growth, and Elijah McCoy, who developed 57 patents, including the “Real McCoy” engine lubrication device for railroad and factory engines; and

Whereas, In 1849, Ypsilanti was selected to host the location of the State Normal School, which later became Eastern Michigan University; and

Whereas, In 1869 Ypsilanti opened the first public library which was established by six women who had chosen the name the Ladies’ Library Association of Ypsilanti; and

Whereas, The city of Ypsilanti played an important role in the Women’s Suffrage Movement. In 1921, one year after the federal suffrage amendment was ratified, Estelle Downing was the first woman elected to city council; and

Whereas, Ypsilanti has the second largest historic district in Michigan, including Downtown, Depot Town, and West Cross; and

Whereas, The city of Ypsilanti has a honored place in the history of fighting against discrimination of all types in the successful passing of an inclusive Non-Discrimination Ordinance in 1998; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, That the members of this legislative body commemorate the city of Ypsilanti’s 200th Founder’s Day.

Pending the order that, under rule 3.204, the resolution be referred to the Committee on Government Operations,

Senator Singh moved that the rule be suspended.

The motion prevailed, a majority of the members serving voting therefor.

The resolution was adopted.

Senators Geiss and Santana were named co-sponsors of the resolution.

Senator Irwin asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Irwin’s statement is as follows:

Thank you for considering this resolution to honor the great city of Ypsilanti as it approaches its 200th anniversary. The great city of Ypsilanti was founded just a little over 200 years ago and named after Greek General Ypsilanti, and for 200 years it’s been a powerhouse in Washtenaw County and it’s a city I love and am very proud to represent. I wanted to just take a couple moments to rise here on the floor and give some words of support, acknowledgement, and honor to the city I’m so proud to represent, the city of Ypsilanti.

Statements

Senator Nesbitt asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Nesbitt’s statement is as follows:

I rise today to urge my colleagues across the aisle to reverse course on their policies that risk sending us back to Michigan’s Lost Decade. Michigan’s economic recovery from the pandemic has been slower than 41 other states. Think about that. Forty-one other states have had a faster recovery after the pandemic than Michigan.

Thirty-three thousand fewer Michiganders are working today than before the COVID-19 pandemic, and our unemployment rate remains above the national average. All of this despite the Governor and Democrats throwing billions of taxpayer dollars to profitable, multi-national corporations to create jobs that, in some cases, pay below the local average wage. Combine this sobering job news with the seemingly endless pressure of inflation, fluctuating gas prices, and most economists predicting a recession in the near future. The alarm bells should be ringing for the Governor and every lawmaker in this chamber.

Yet nearly every decision by the new majority to this point is likely to make the situation worse. Making Michigan a less-attractive destination for new jobs by catering to union bosses. Spending down a record surplus in record time. Refusing to put money back into the pockets of taxpayers and instead using it to grow the scope and size of state government. Union bosses over Michigan workers; big corporations over struggling families; big government over individual freedom. That is what we have seen so far this year. These are the same policies that turned a national recession into a one-state depression and the Lost Decade for our state.

Mr. President, the people of this state have been struggling economically for over a year now, and the signs are all around us that the situation could get worse. Unfortunately, to this point, the policies of the new majority are making that more and more likely.
