Theis

In The Chair: Moss

The Senate agreed to the title of the bill.

Senator Lindsey asked and was granted unanimous consent to make a statement and moved that the statement be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Lindsey’s statement is as follows:

The bills we are about to consider would clarify and strengthen Michigan’s laws about animal cruelty. I think this is a noble thing for us to be thinking about and considering in this chamber. But, once again, we stand in this chamber passing legislation with which very few people will disagree but raise the question: Are we doing enough for the people of Michigan?

My amendment would tie-bar the passage of this legislation to legislation one of my colleagues introduced that would strengthen our approach to handling fentanyl in the state of Michigan, specifically what dealers are doing with it, the damage they’re doing to our communities. We see thousands of deaths happening annually from this. We know this is something that often is being produced in China, being brought over our border illegally, and it’s having massive impacts on our community.

Again, my point is there’s nothing wrong with standing here and taking steps to help protect animals in the state of Michigan but if we’re going to do that, couldn’t we also take steps to protect our communities from the blight of fentanyl. I ask for a “yes” vote.

The following bill was read a third time:

Senate Bill No. 658, entitled

A bill to amend 1931 PA 328, entitled “The Michigan penal code,” by amending section 50b (MCL 750.50b), as amended by 2018 PA 452.

Protests

Senators McBroom and Bellino, under their constitutional right of protest (Art. 4, Sec. 18), protested against concurring in the House substitute to Senate Bill No. 682.

Senator McBroom’s statement, in which Senator Bellino concurred, is as follows:

Mr. President, I appreciate the cause for this legislation. We heard it in committee. I’ve spoken with people on the island and with the bill sponsor. I think there’s a lot of merit to the discussion, however, I think the solution that has been crafted here is not the proper or constitutional response to this problem. The right response would be to pass a local act; an act giving the people of the island the ability to control the speed limits on this road is something that we could legally do through a local act as prescribed by the Michigan Constitution. We would pass it, it would then be ratified by the people on that island. It would be a far more nuanced and elegant solution to this problem of some people bicycling too quickly on the island in heavily pedestrian areas, rather than this solution which is a one-size-fits-all approach taking the entire length of the highway on the island and setting one speed limit regardless of the congestion of personnel.

Additionally, I find that the law is unlikely to be enforceable due to the fact that people with bicycles, many of which are rented on the island itself, do not have speedometers. People are going to be ticketed and written up for violating a speed law without any ability to determine what speed they’re actually going because of not having the equipment to do so. For those reasons, I voted “no.”

Statements

Senators Webber and Runestad asked and were granted unanimous consent to make statements and moved that the statements be printed in the Journal.

The motion prevailed.

Senator Webber’s statement is as follows:

I rise today as a grieving member of my community. Parks are supposed to be places where we enjoy sunny days with our families, watch our children laugh and play, and make cherished memories. Places where we gather, where we smile, where we feel safe. Unfortunately, that was far from reality for families visiting the splash pad in the Brooklands neighborhood in Rochester Hills this past weekend. The community is in a state of shock, never imagining this could happen in our city. No parent should ever have to worry about the safety of their child in a public place.

As a resident and parent of the Greater Rochester area, I share my community’s grief and I share their pain. I rise today and offer my support and prayers for the victims and their families. I also want to thank our first responders who quickly responded. The Greater Rochester area will remain a strong community, and we will support each other during this tragic time.

Mr. President, we must come together as Michiganders and as Americans to end this senseless violence.

Senator Runestad’s statement is as follows:

I am very discouraged, disappointed, that we passed today Senate Bill Nos. 603 and 604. The current law regarding the Board of Canvassers is very clear. I’m not going to take the time to read every section out of the law currently, but it’s very, very clear that in case of a recount, if somebody suspects fraud, they are able to bring that to the Board of Canvassers. The Board of Canvassers are permitted to investigate fraud. Contrary to everything I’ve been hearing on the other side of the aisle in posts, the media not covering it, it is clear as a bell that if there’s allegations of fraud and a recount, that the Board of Canvassers have currently the ability to investigate fraud. They also have currently the ability to subpoena; they have subpoena power. It’s very clear in the law currently, despite what the other side says and despite the fact that the media will not print any of this for the public to be aware of.

This bill, Senate Bill No. 603, removes that ability from the Board of Canvassers. It is a big change. What they put in instead is, Well, if you suspect fraud, turn it over to the hyper-partisan Attorney General—oh, I’m sure if it’s a Republican making that claim, it’s going to get a thorough investigation—or turn it over to the hyper-partisan Democratic prosecutors within the big cities where the majority of the votes are—oh, I’m sure there’s going to be a lot of investigation of fraud from those individuals. It is being done after 70 years of having the system—all of a sudden, we have to strip the power from the Board of Canvassers. They say, Well, there’s never been an example where it was used. Completely untrue. In the 2020 election, we first in 2016, I believe in Detroit it was 72 percent of the precincts couldn’t be recounted, mostly for an overcount. The whole series of issues: broken open ballot boxes, so we gave them more time and money and what happened in 2020? It went from I believe 72 percent to 79 percent.

How can this happen? These very astute Board of Canvassers for Wayne County said, We want to find out what happened. What happened then? They had a tsunami of death threats. Of all the death threats I’ve heard banded around, the absolute worst I have ever heard was against that Wayne County canvasser. A female who was doxed, her daughter was doxed, they send horrific things to the mother. One of them was a tortured, bloody, murdered little girl the same age as her daughter. It said, If you don’t vote for this, it’s going to happen to your daughter. Of all the threats I’ve heard, nothing have I heard is more despicable and disgusting than that. If that had been me as a parent, I don’t know what I would have done. What did law enforcement do? They waited four and a half years to look at this case and investigate this case. The most severe threat I’ve ever heard—verbal, written threat—she was given five days of suspended sentence.

This is what’s happening in terms of real, true threats going on here. The people who had the ability to do the investigation stripped out, gone, with this bill after 70 years of this bill, the Democrats have stripped out the ability of the Board of Canvassers to investigate fraud in a recount and to get subpoena power, and now you refer it off to these hyper-partisan individuals who will never prosecute this. This is an outrage that we have had this bill passed. I don’t know what to do in terms of expressing to the people here in the state of Michigan why the Democrats are doing this now. Seventy years of a bill that has worked well and the Democrats stripped the provisions out to stop fraud? I think the people here in the state of Michigan know why the Democrats have done this today.
