Major Boilerplate Changes from FY 2022-23 Year-to-Date:

- 1. Virtual Learning. The Senate modified the definition of "virtual course" to allow schools to conduct learning remotely for individual days rather than cancelling classes (Sec. 21f).
- 2. Student Teacher Stipends. The Senate removed the list of acceptable uses for student teacher stipends. The stipends would be paid to the eligible student teachers, with no restrictions on use (Sec. 27c).
- 3. ISD Activities. The Senate removed language requiring ISDs to ensure that public school academies are not excluded from activities, such as meetings, events, email distribution lists, and other coordination or collaboration activities (Sec. 81).
- 4. Career and Technical Education Incentive Payments. The Senate removed a requirement that incentive payments be split between the district and ISD if the CTE program is provided at the ISD (Sec. 61d).
- 5. Pupil Count Day Exception. The Senate added language allowing an alternate pupil count day if the day in statute falls on a day of religious or cultural significance (Sec. 6).
- 6. Repealed Sections. The Senate repealed sections that related to extended COVID-19 learning plans (Sec. 98a), benchmark assessment reporting (Sec. 98b), prohibition of funds for legal action initiated by a district (Sec. 164g), restrictions on collective bargaining agreements (Sec. 164h), penalty for abortion referrals (Sec. 166), and various one-time funding or eliminated programs.
