

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 109

Reps. Stone, Aiyash, Breen, Glanville, Jaime Greene, Haadsma, Hope, Morse, Rheingans, Shannon and Young offered the following resolution:

1           A resolution to declare May 14, 2023, as Hmong American Day in 2 the state of Michigan.

3           Whereas, The first Hmong families arrived in the United States 4 as refugees of war in 1976, with thousands settling in the state of 5 Michigan; and

6           Whereas, During the Vietnam War, the Central Intelligence
7 Agency (CIA) and United States Armed Forces recruited, organized,
8 trained, and assisted Hmong forces to combat the North Vietnamese 9 Army and communist Pathet Lao forces; and

10           Whereas, Hmong guerrilla soldiers courageously fought 11 alongside Americans during the "Secret War" in Lao; and

1           Whereas, Thousands of Hmong men, women and children died in 2 Lao. Their deaths were unaccounted for, while their commitment to 3 rescuing downed American pilots and saving U.S. troops never 4 wavered; and

5           Whereas, When the U.S withdrew from Laos, the Hmong faced 6 harsh retribution from the Communist government for their 7 involvement in the American war effort and many were ultimately 8 forced to flee their native land; and

9           Whereas, On May 14th, 1975, the last of the Hmong soldiers and 10 their families fled Laos for the Nam Phong refugee camp in 11 Thailand, later resettling in communities throughout the United 12 States, including in Michigan; and

13           Whereas, Michigan is home to a significant number of Hmong 14 refugees, after providing political asylum and citizenship because 15 of their unique contribution to American interests; and

16           Whereas, The House of Representatives, recognizes that the 17 state of Michigan is home to a significant number of Hmong
18 Americans and the importance of educating the general public about 19 the historic contributions of our Hmong American residents; and

20           Whereas, The diversity of the Hmong people adds much to the 21 cultural fabric of our city, state, and country, as they have 22 shared their traditions, food, and practices of faith; and

23           Whereas, Today, the House of Representatives joins in 24 reflecting on the tremendous heroism and sacrifice of our Hmong 25 American community; and

26           Whereas, We honor their commitment to leadership, 27 establishment of businesses, and contribution to the economic 28 growth of our state; now, therefore, be it

29           Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of

1 this legislative body declare May 14, 2023, as Hmong American Day
2 in the state of Michigan.
