Fr. Tim MacDonald, Vicar General, Pastor of Queen of the Miraculous Medal Catholic Church in Jackson, offered the following invocation:

“Lord God, Creator of Heaven and Earth, we humbly ask Your blessing this day upon all the men and women of the House of Representatives of the great state of Michigan; bless their families and their constituents.

May these legislators come together as one to work for the common good of all people, to defend the sacred dignity of human life at every stage of development, and to meet the ongoing needs of the least among us.

All good things come from You. All things belong to You. May we use the time, talent and treasure entrusted to us to give You glory, honor and praise. May we serve our communities and one another in imitation of the great, selfless love You show to us each day.

Lord, bestow Your many blessings upon all the leaders, lawmakers and people of Michigan and every state in our union. Heal us of all that divides us. End the violence in our cities, on our campuses and across our state and nation.

Watch over all first responders and military personnel, keeping them safe from harm as they protect the innocent, defend freedom and preserve our way of life.

May we live lives worthy of Your love in hopes that one day we might see Your face in Your kingdom and enjoy eternal union with You.

Amen.”

House Resolution No. 175.

A resolution to declare September 19, 2025, as POW/MIA Recognition Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, The United States has fought in many wars and thousands of Americans who served in those wars were captured by the enemy or are listed as missing in action; and

Whereas, It has always been the creed of those who wear a military uniform never to leave a fallen comrade on the battlefield. On this day, we pay tribute to those who are missing in action or who were taken prisoner of war and never returned home; and

Whereas, To date, more than 80,000 Americans are listed as prisoners of war or missing in action since World War II. This includes more than 71,000 from World War II, 7,000 from the Korean War, one hundred from the Cold War, 1,500 from the Vietnam War, and seven from the Gulf Wars and Libya. Of those totals, Michigan still accounts for 2,445 from World War II, 328 from the Korean War, five from the Cold War, and forty-eight from the Vietnam War; and

Whereas, We as a nation can never collectively rest until we achieve the fullest possible accounting for those men and women; and

Whereas, We express our deepest gratitude to these patriots in both words and actions, knowing they were fighting to protect our rights and freedoms; and our commitment will not be fulfilled until they all come home; and

Whereas, The black-and-white POW/MIA flag will fly proudly along with the United States and State of Michigan flags on September 19, serving as a solemn reminder that while the duty of those who are missing in action or prisoners of war is finished, ours continues as we seek to find, repatriate, and honor these courageous men and women; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare September 19, 2025, as POW/MIA Recognition Day in the state of Michigan.

Explanation of "No" Votes

Rep. Fitzgerald, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of House Bill No. 4750, made the following statement:

"Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

I respectfully voted no on HB 4750 believing that the requirement to complete personal financial literacy requirements are a burdensome requirement unnecessarily imposed on the foster children that are intended to be served by this legislation. The personal financial literacy requirements are an undue and inequitable requirement being placed on Michiganders who need support, not government overreach. Additionally, I fear that this creates a dangerous precedent that could unjustly impact resources and programs in the future."
