

COMMUNITY COLLEGE ACT OF 1966 (EXCERPT)
Act 331 of 1966

389.56 Community college district elections; voting eligibility.

Sec. 56.

If part of a local school district is in another community college district, only those electors residing in that part of the school district not in the other community college district are eligible to vote in the organizational election and in subsequent elections of the community college district.

History: 1966, Act 331, Eff. Oct. 1, 1966 ;-- Am. 2003, Act 306, Eff. Jan. 1, 2005

Compiler's Notes: Act 269 of 1955, referred to in this section, was repealed by Act 451 of 1976.