

SAVINGS BANK ACT (EXCERPT)
Act 354 of 1996

487.3707 Definitions; terms and conditions of conversion or exchange.

Sec. 707.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Consolidation agreement" means an agreement entered into among an existing bank or an existing association, a new bank, and new holding company that provides both of the following:

(i) That the existing bank or existing association and the new bank will be consolidated or merged.

(ii) That upon consummation of the consolidation or merger, the shares of capital stock of the existing bank or existing association will be converted into or exchanged for shares of the capital stock or other securities of the new holding company.

(b) "Existing association" means a stock association that is a party to a consolidation agreement and is engaged in the savings and loan business prior to the consolidation or merger provided for in the consolidation agreement.

(c) "Existing bank" means a savings bank, national banking association, or state chartered bank that is a party to a consolidation agreement and is engaged in the business of banking prior to the consolidation or merger provided for in the consolidation agreement.

(d) "New bank" means a savings bank that is a party to a consolidation agreement and is not engaged in the business of banking prior to the consummation of the consolidation or merger provided for in the consolidation agreement.

(e) "New holding company" means a corporation that is not a savings bank, association, or national banking association and as to which all of the following apply:

(i) The corporation is a party to a consolidation agreement.

(ii) Prior to its acquisition of an existing bank or existing association under the consolidation agreement, the corporation does not have control of a bank, an association, or national banking association and has not transacted any business except business incidental to its organization and to the entering into, and performance of, the consolidation agreement.

(iii) Upon consummation of the consolidation or merger provided for in the consolidation agreement, the corporation will become a bank holding company.

(iv) Immediately after its acquisition of an existing bank or existing association pursuant to the consolidation agreement, the corporation will not have control of more than 1 savings bank.

(v) Prior to the acquisition of an existing bank or existing association under the consolidation agreement, the corporation is not, and immediately after acquisition of control of the existing bank or existing association will not be, controlled by a bank holding company.

(f) "Control" means control as defined in section 2 of the bank holding company act of 1956, 12 U.S.C. 1841.

(2) A new holding company may apply to the commissioner for approval of the terms and conditions of the issuance of the shares or other securities of the new holding company into which the shares of an existing bank or existing association are to be converted, or for which the shares of the existing bank or existing association are to be exchanged, under a consolidation agreement, and for approval of the terms and conditions of the conversion or exchange. The application for approval shall be in a form, contain information, and be accompanied by documents as shall be required by the commissioner. Within 30 days after the application is filed, the commissioner shall conduct a hearing upon the fairness of the terms and conditions at which all persons to whom it is proposed to issue the securities in the conversion or exchange shall have the right to appear. Within 20 days after the hearing, the commissioner shall either approve or disapprove the terms and conditions of the issuance and of the conversion or exchange. This subsection shall not be construed to require a new holding company to apply for or obtain the approval of the commissioner of the terms and conditions of the issuance and conversion or exchange of securities provided for in a consolidation agreement or to make unlawful any transaction that is lawful without regard to this subsection.
