- (2) A person entitled to record a notice of contract under subsection (1) may record the notice at any time after the execution of the written subcontract regardless of whether the professional services under the written subcontract have been commenced or completed, and regardless of whether the construction, alteration, repair, or removal of the structure or the other improvement to which the professional services relate has been, or is ever, commenced or completed. However, the person shall not record the notice later than 90 days after the last day a design professional who is entitled to record a notice under this section or section 107a, or any person claiming by, through, or under the design professional, performed professional services for the project.
- (3) A notice under this section is valid for 1 year after the date it is recorded. The person furnishing professional services under the written contract with a design professional may record a subsequent notice with respect to the written contract. All of the requirements of this section, including the time limitation of subsection (2), apply to a subsequent notice.
- (4) If an actual physical improvement is made to the property after a notice is recorded under this section, the notice is only effective from the date of the first actual physical improvement.
- (5) This section, or the recording of a notice under this section, does not affect the requirements of this act regarding the creation of a construction lien, including requirements of section 107, the steps necessary to claim a lien, or the manner of enforcing a lien.
