

THE MICHIGAN PENAL CODE (EXCERPT)
Act 328 of 1931

750.249a Use or employment of tool or instrument to make counterfeit financial transaction device.

Sec. 249a.

A person who casts, stamps, engraves, makes, or mends, or knowingly has in his or her possession a mold, pattern, die, puncheon, engine, press, or other tool or instrument adapted and designed for making a false, forged, altered, or counterfeit financial transaction device, as defined in section 157m, with the intent to use or employ or cause or permit the same to be used or employed in making a counterfeit financial transaction device is guilty of a felony.

History: Add. 1987, Act 276, Eff. Mar. 30, 1988