

Revised Statutes of 1846 (EXCERPT)
CHAPTER 1. OF THE STATUTES.

8.4c “Shall not apply” defined.

Sec. 4c.

As used in the statutes of this state, "shall not apply" means that the pertinent provision is not operative as to certain persons or things or in conjunction with a particular date or dates. Use of the phrase "shall not apply" does not result in the repeal, expiration, termination, or otherwise legislating out of existence of that portion of a statute to which the phrase pertains, but only relates to the operational effect of the provision.

History: Add. 1986, Act 317, Imd. Eff. Dec. 26, 1986